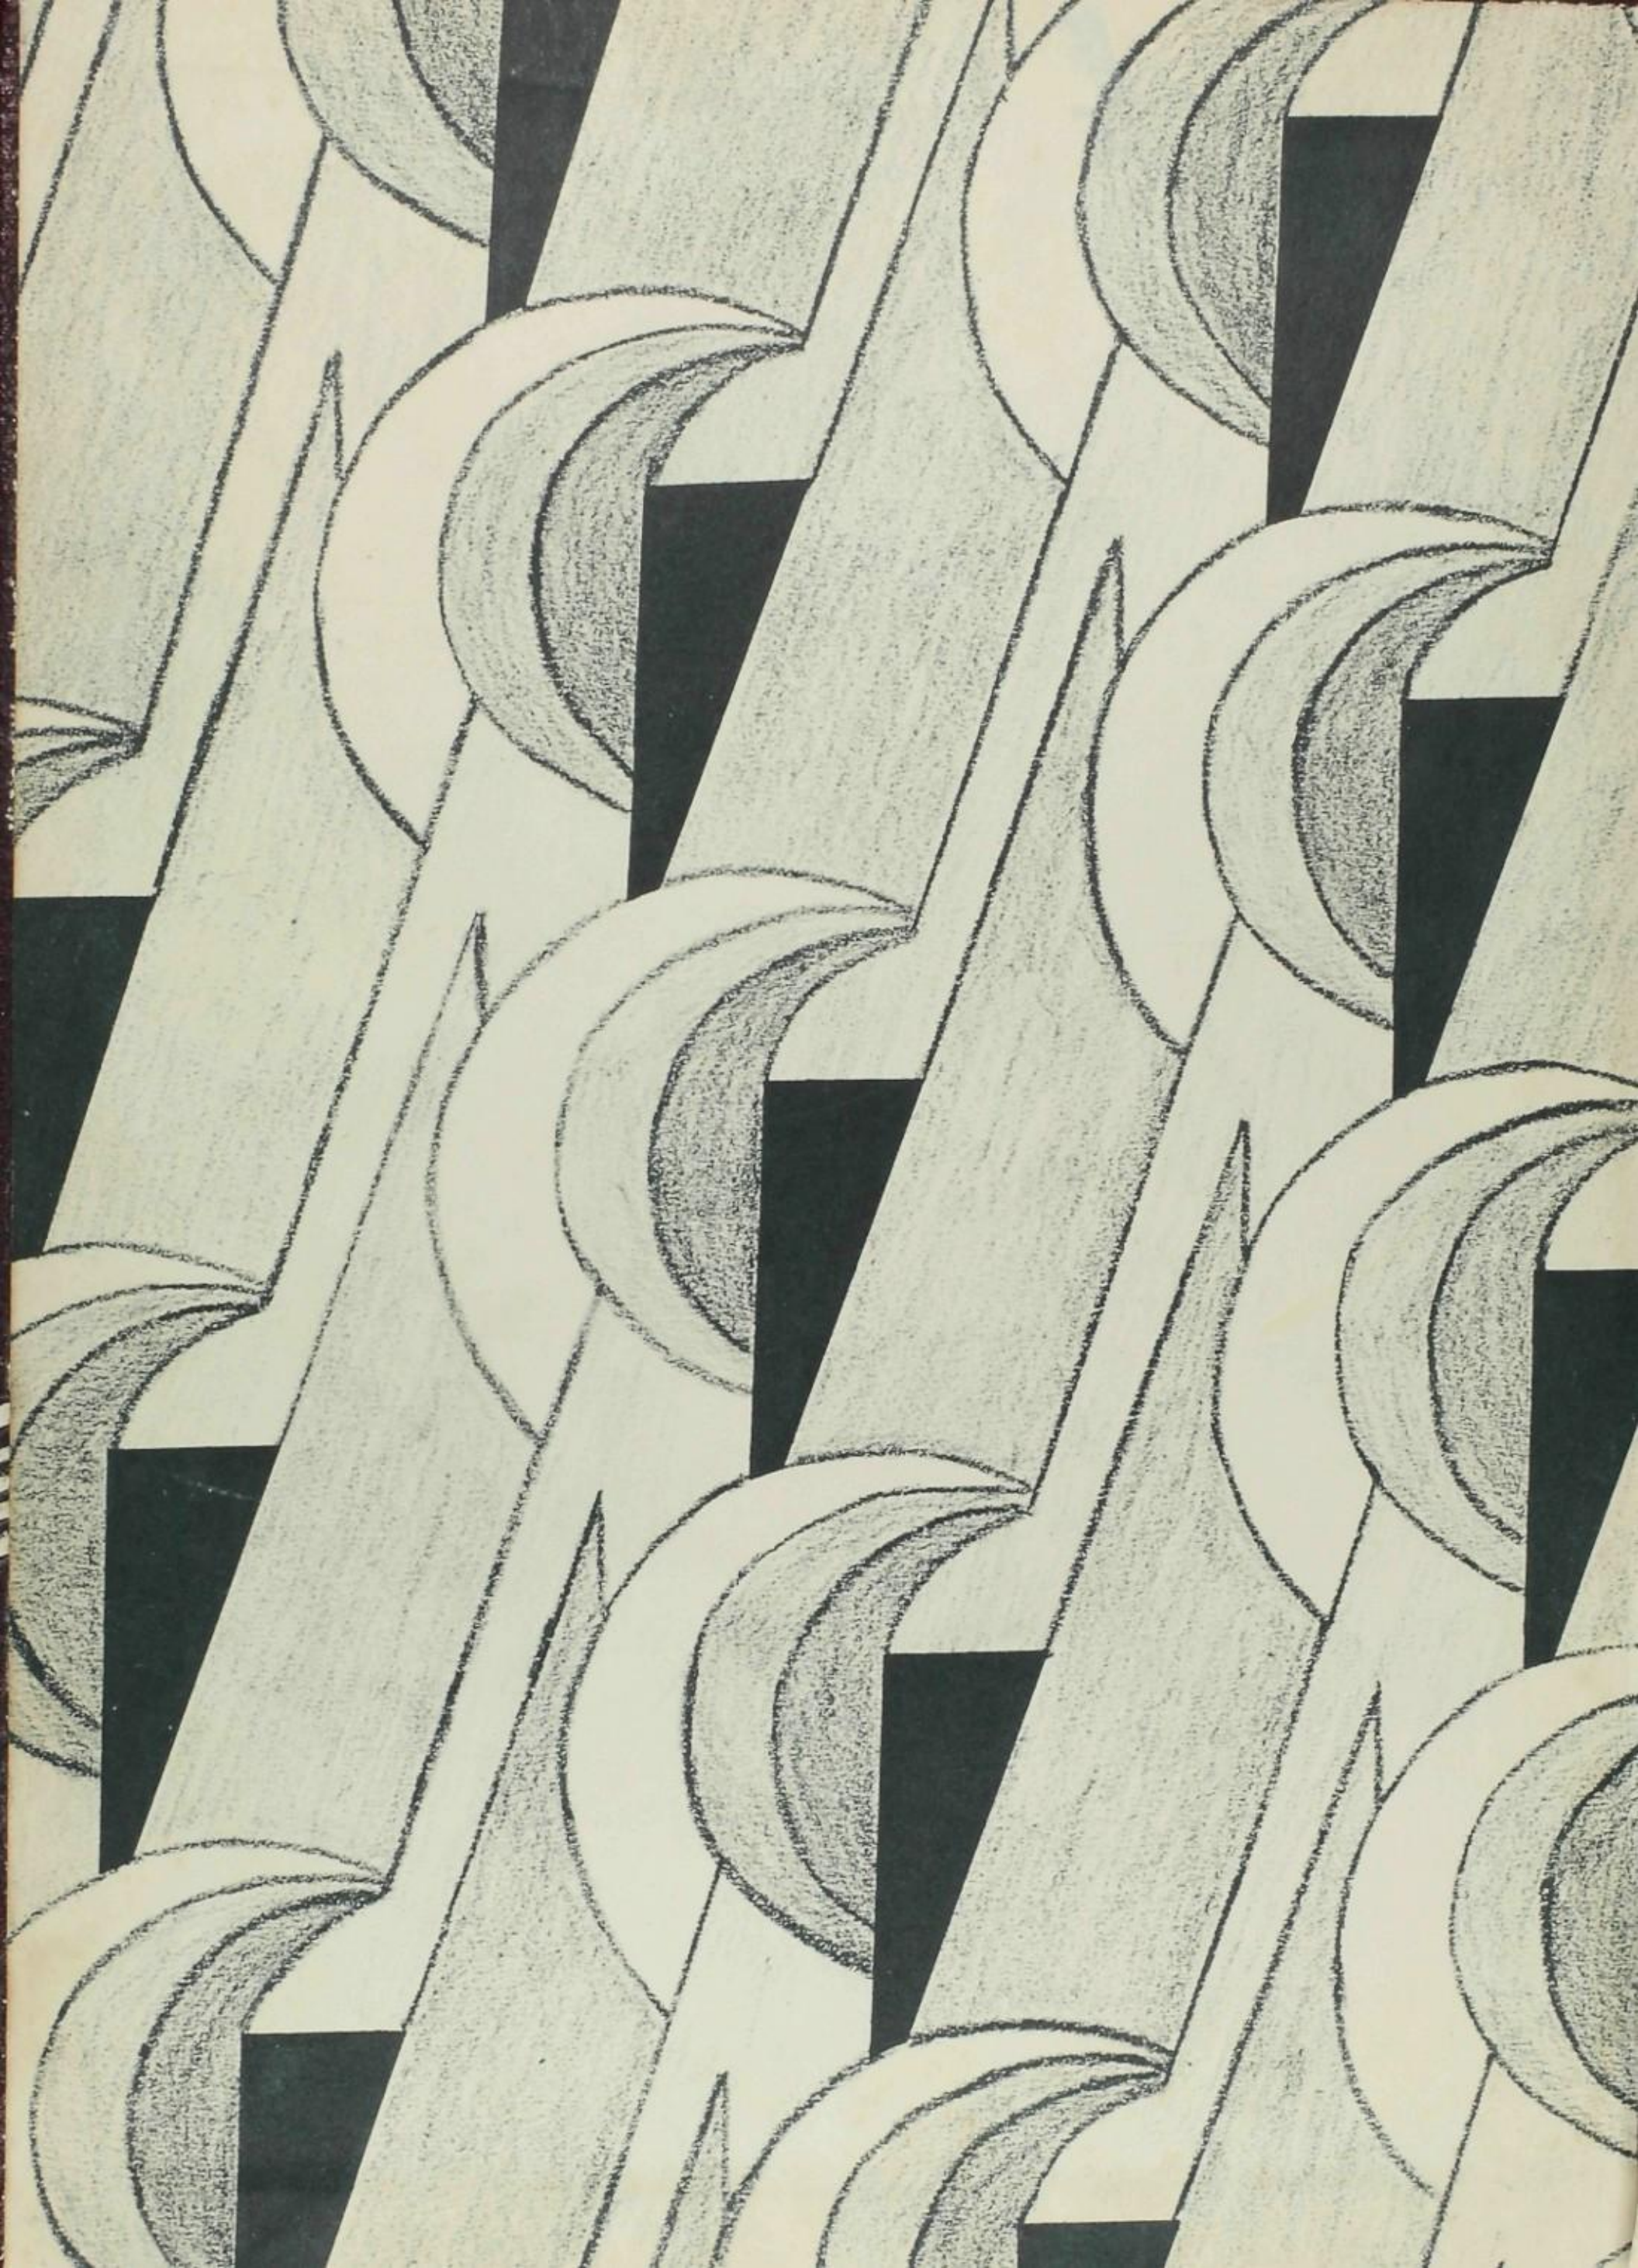
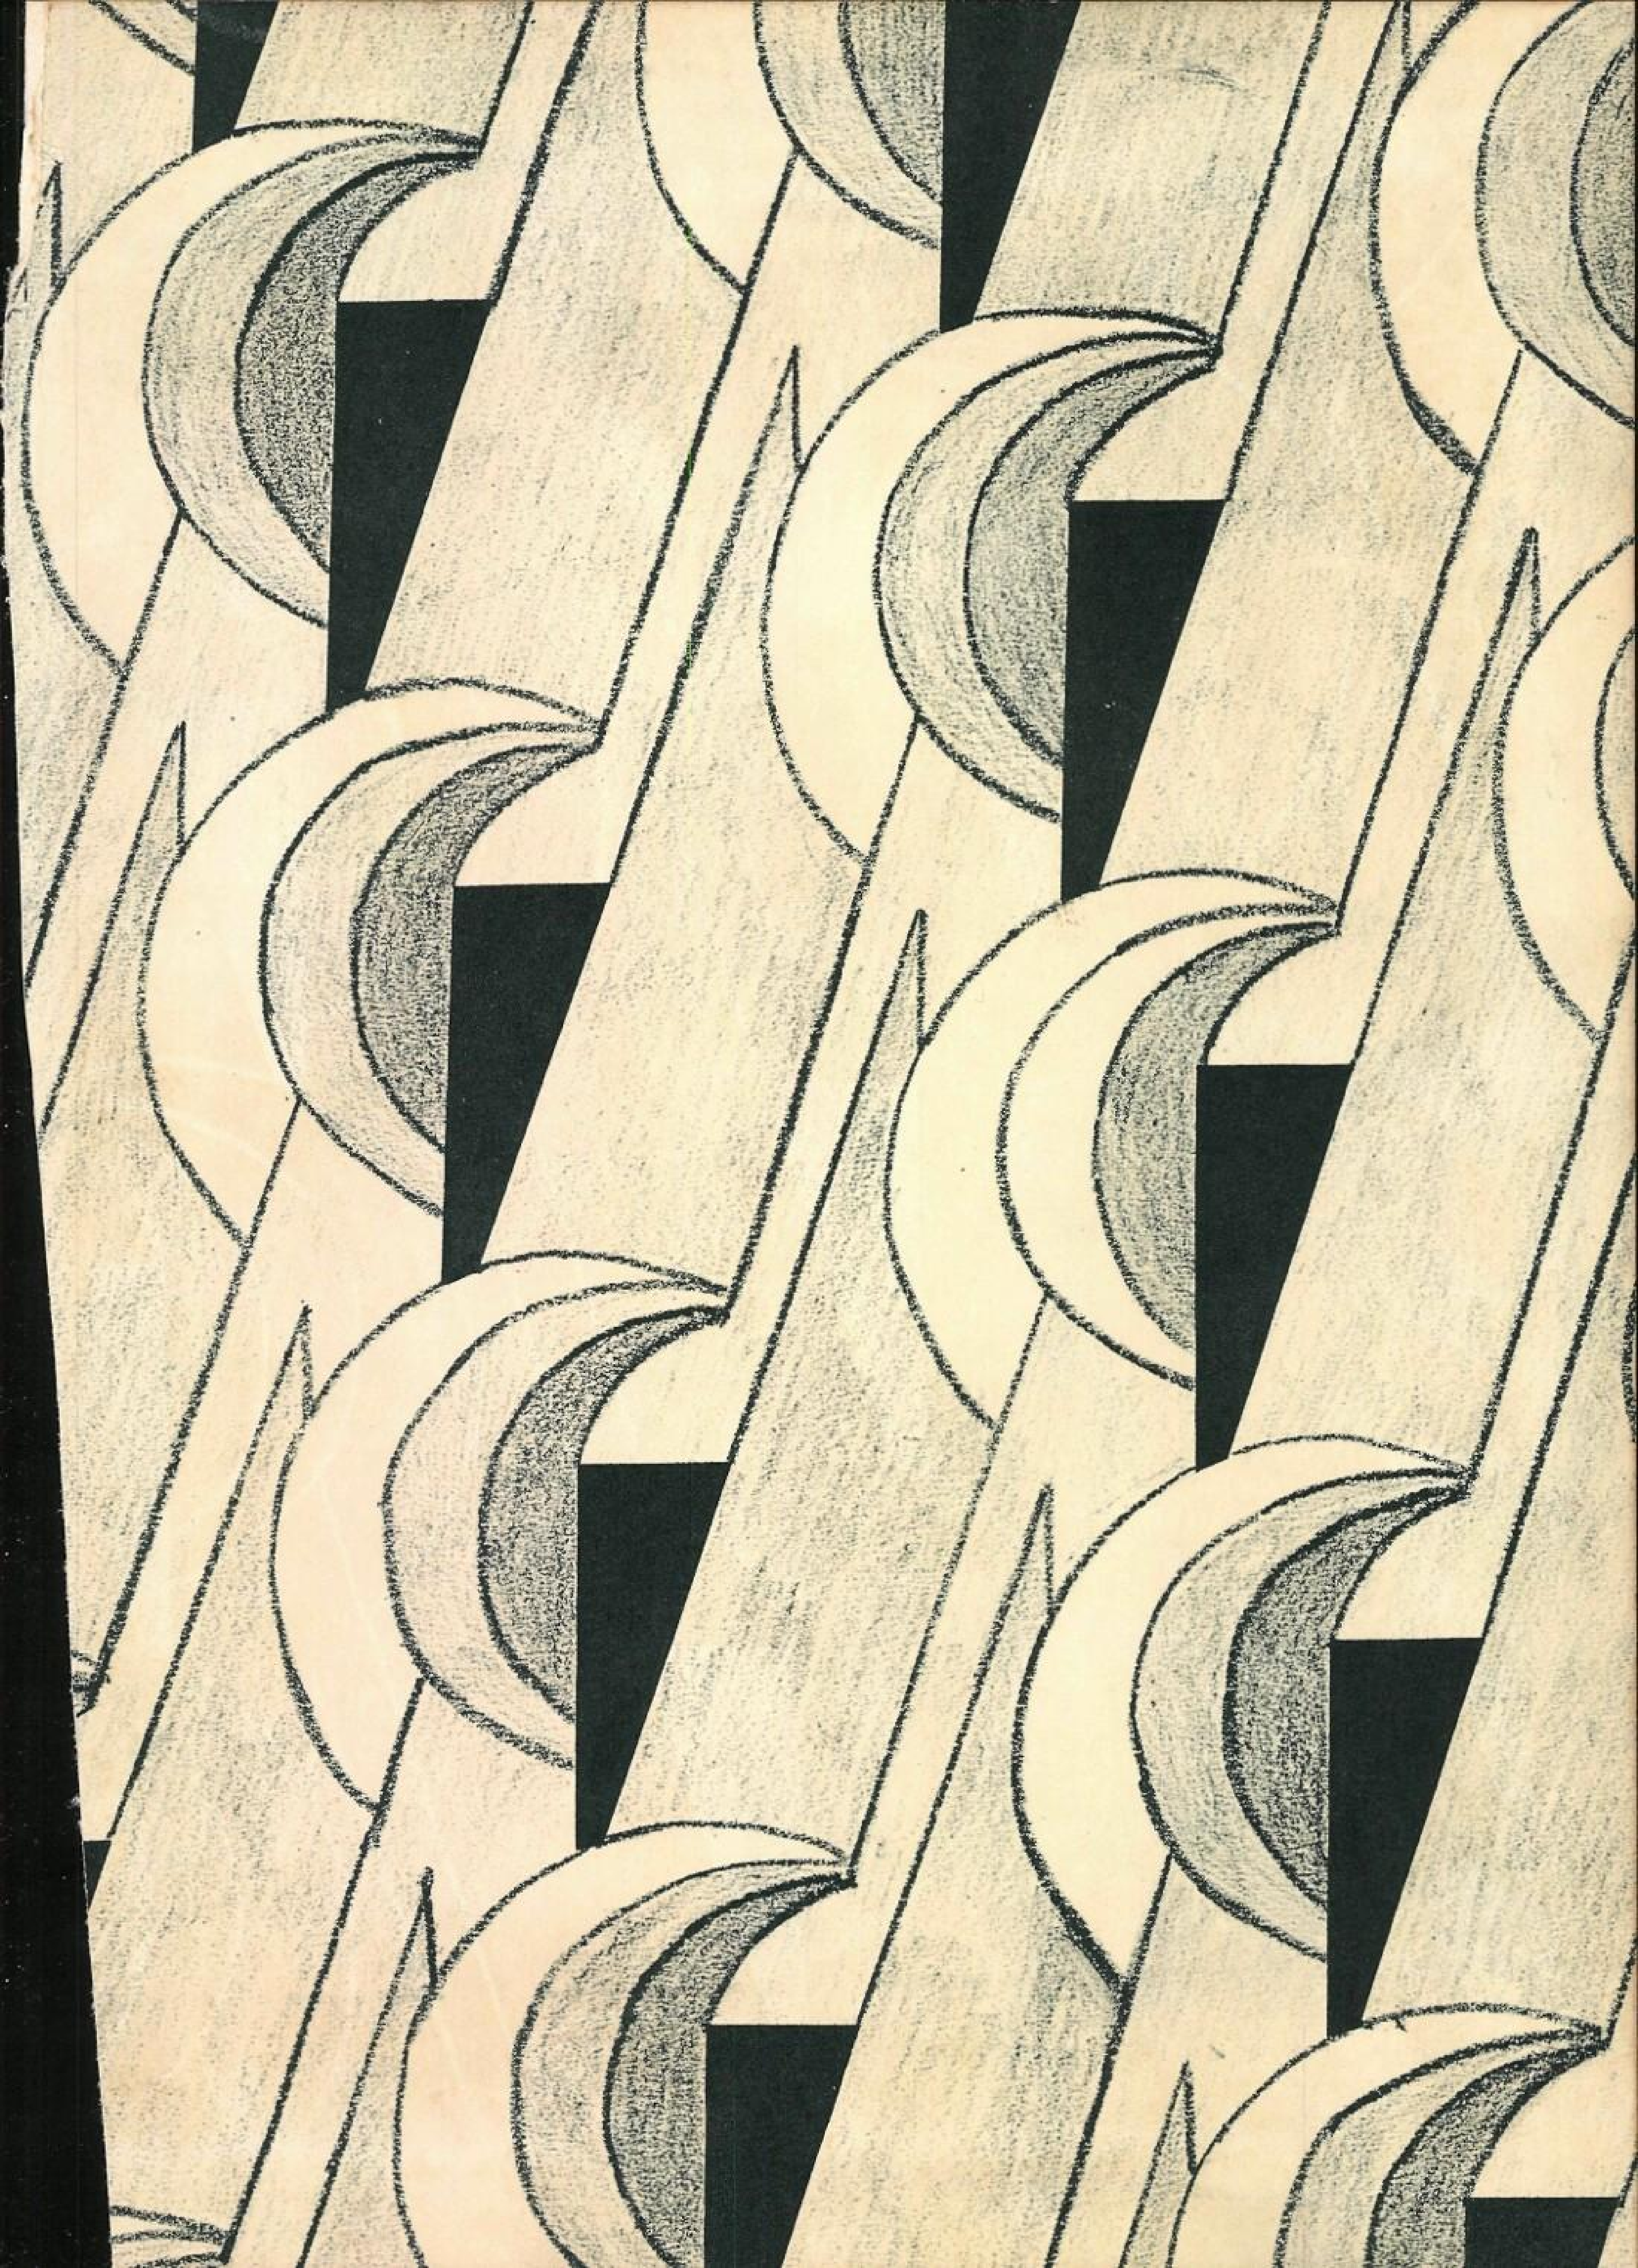
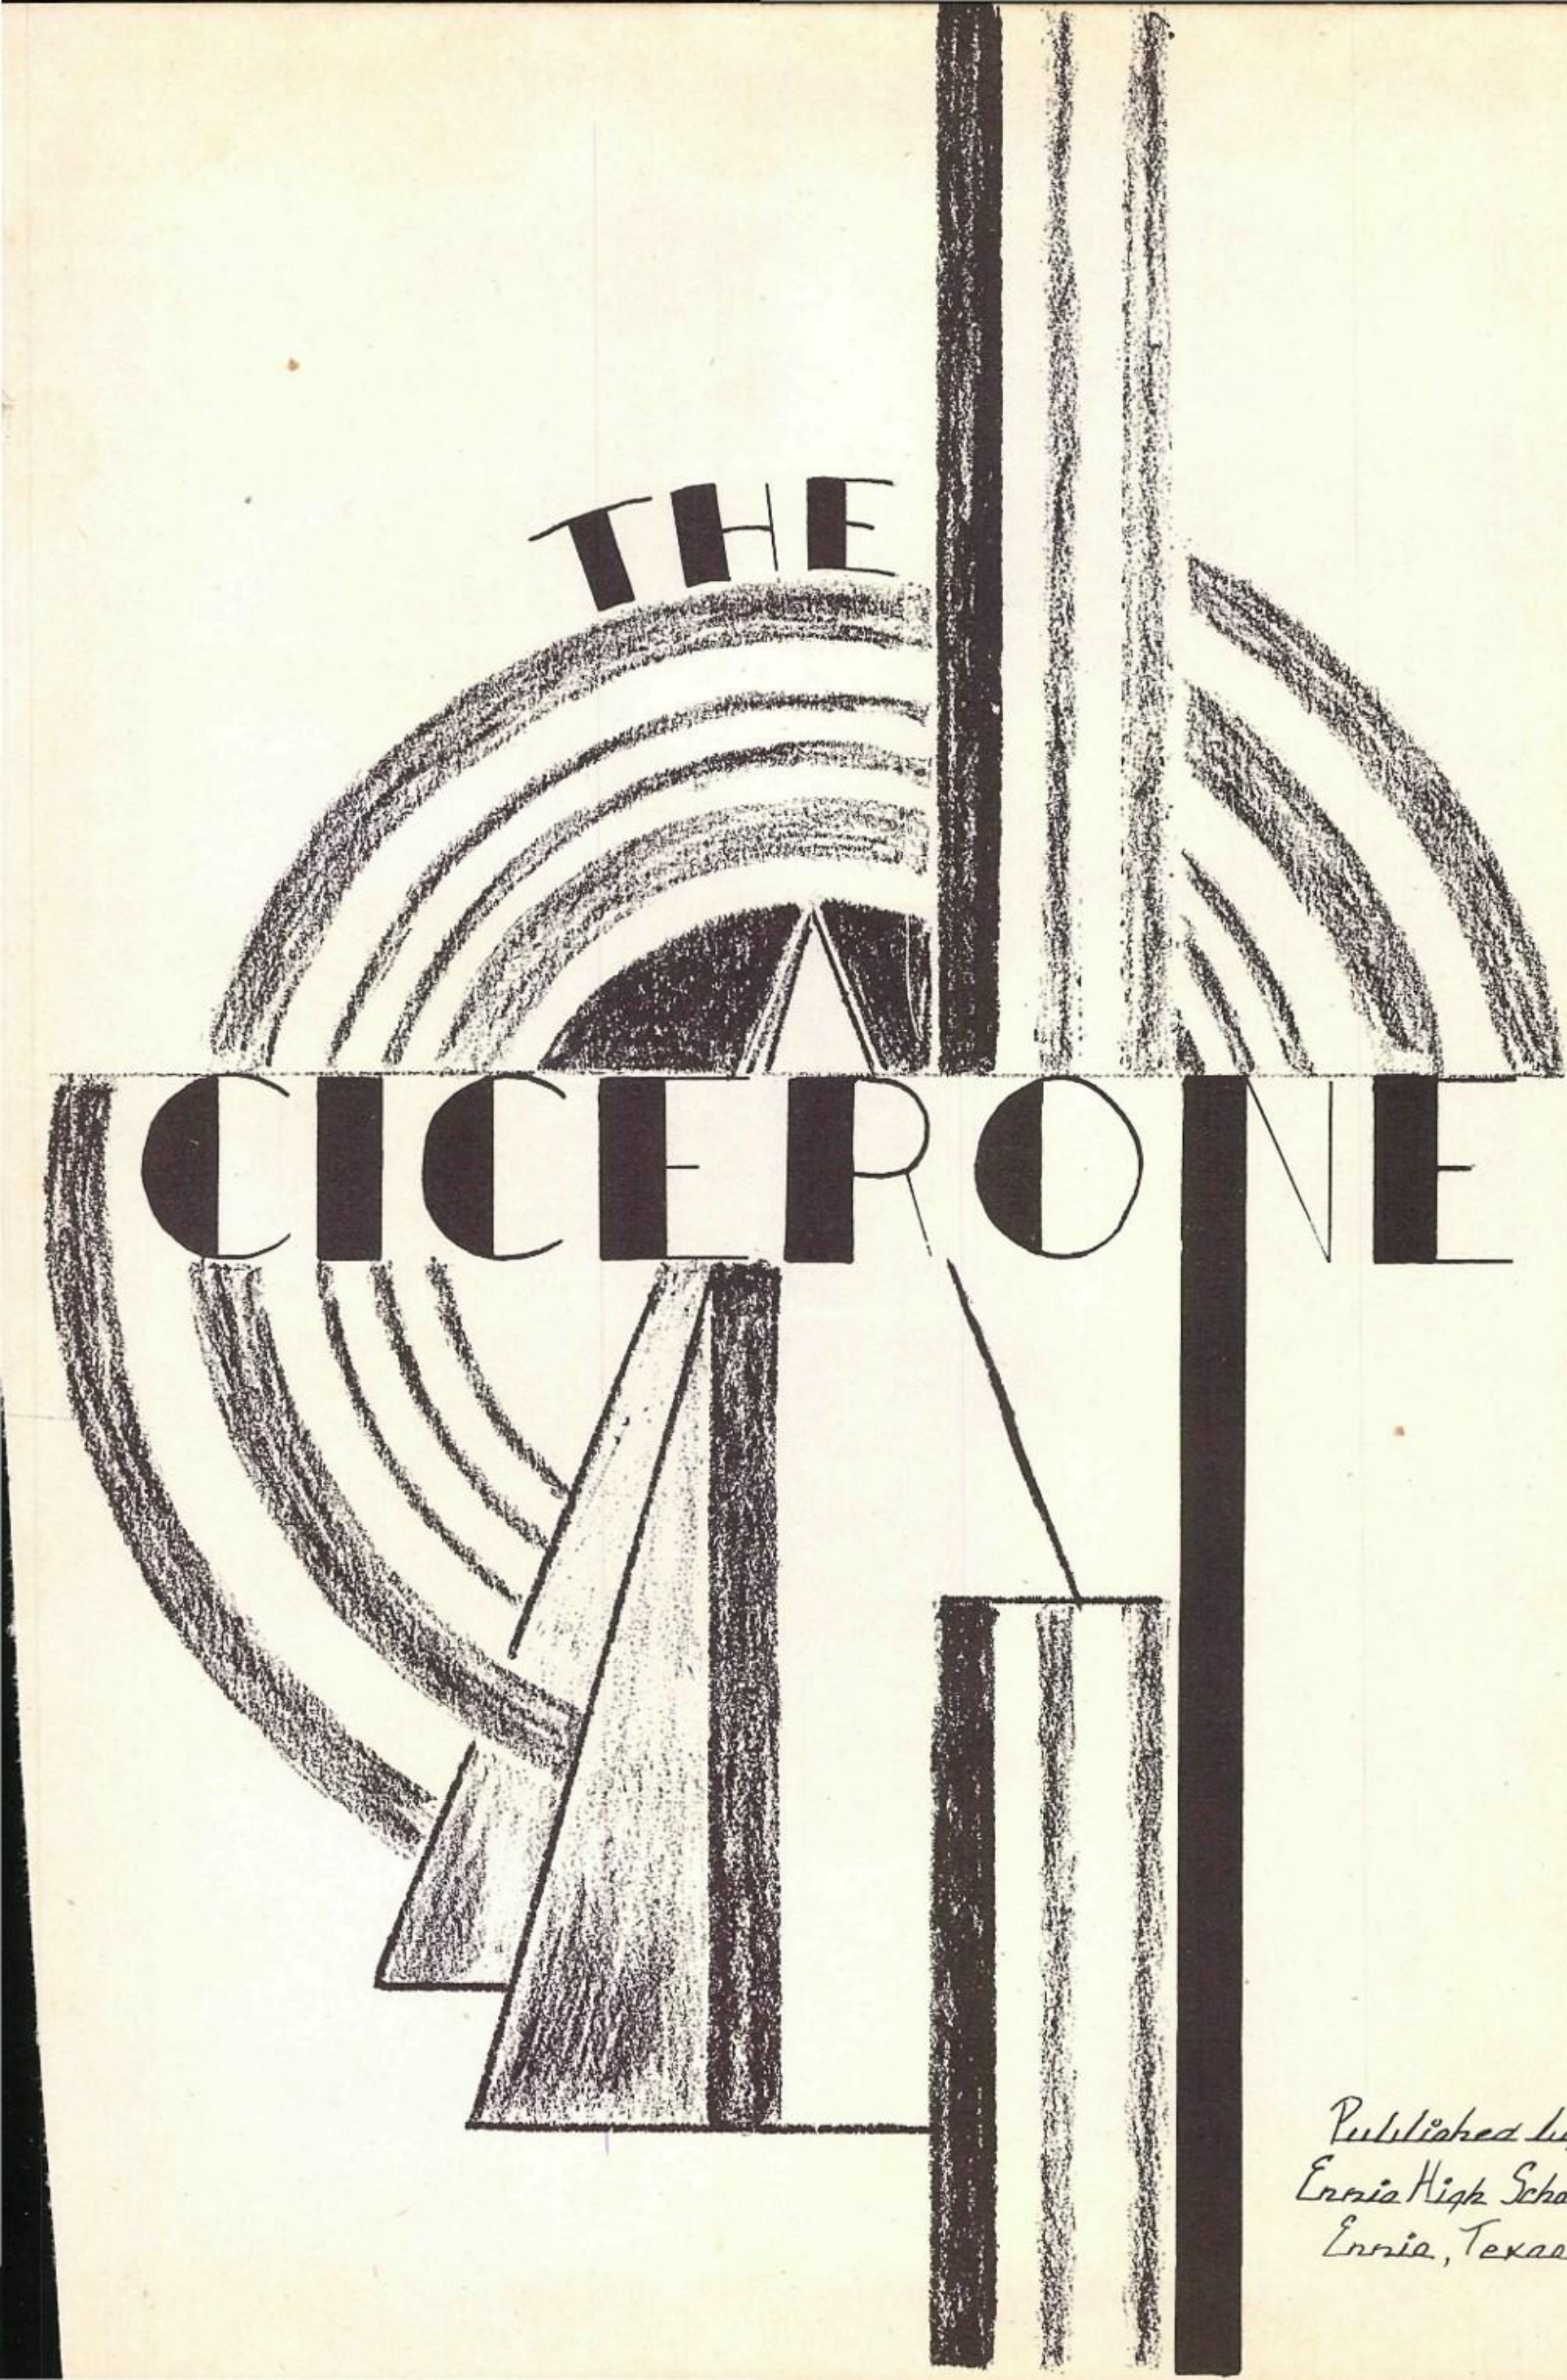
Cicerone

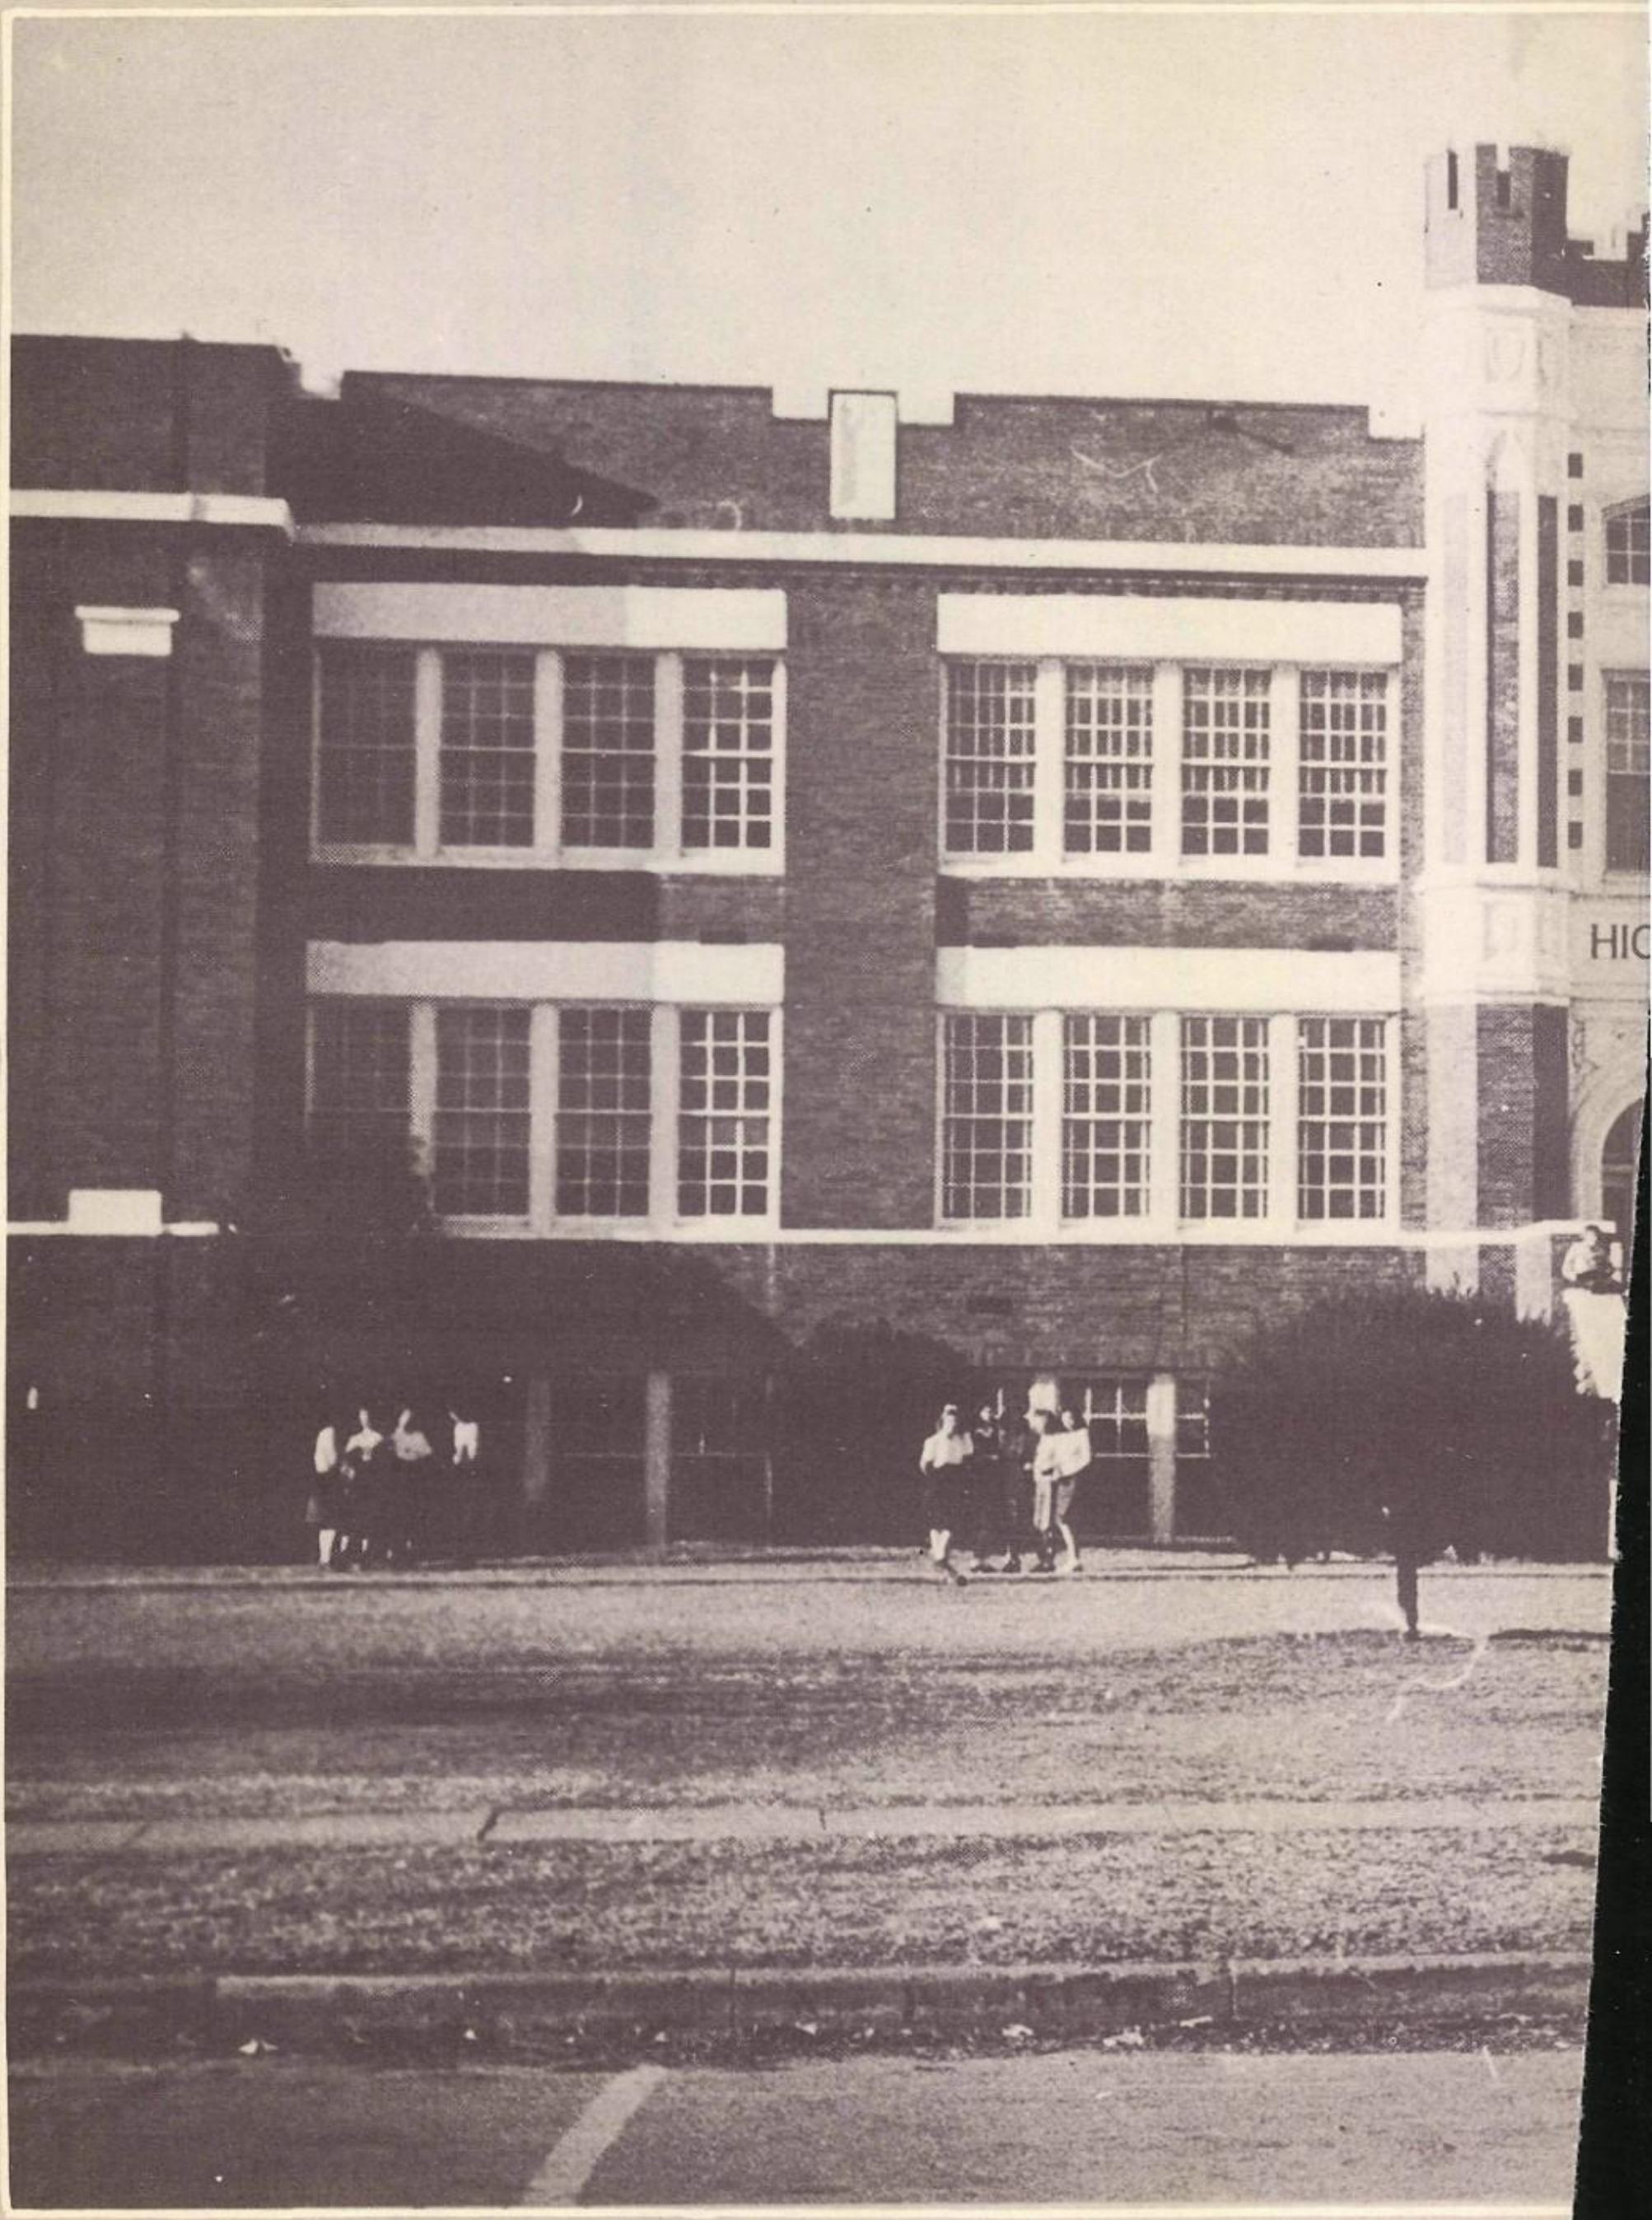
1945

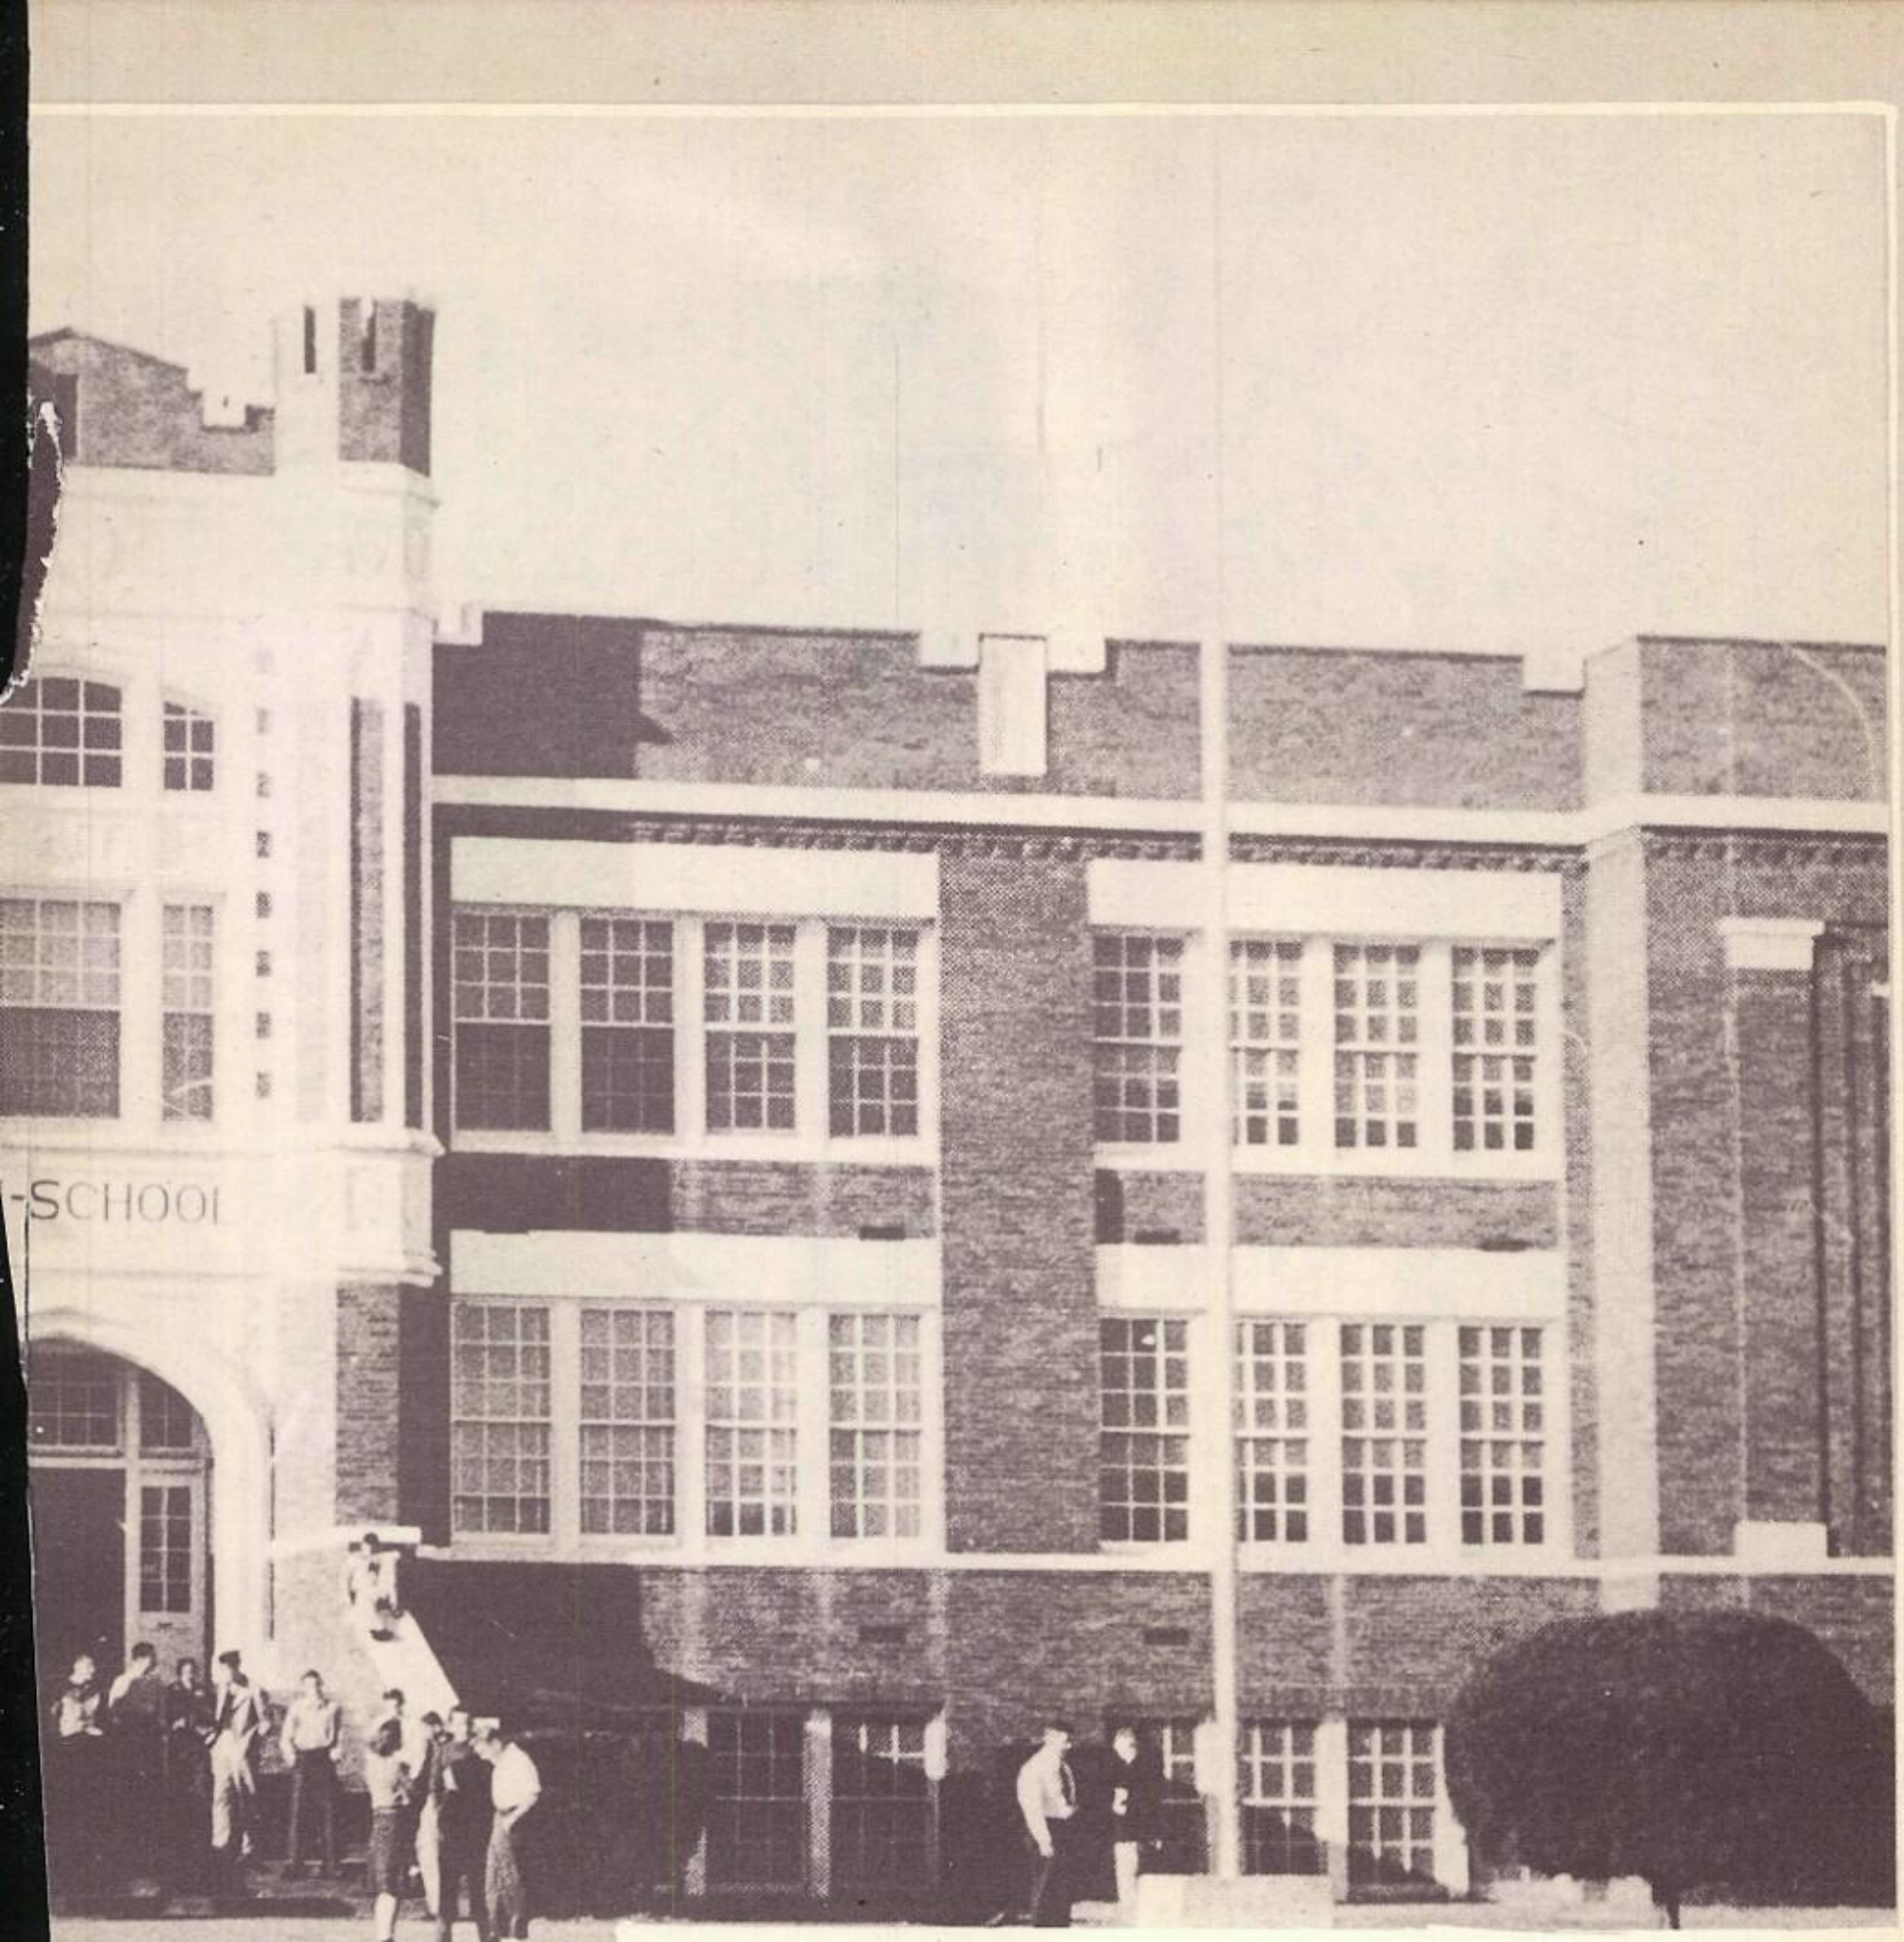






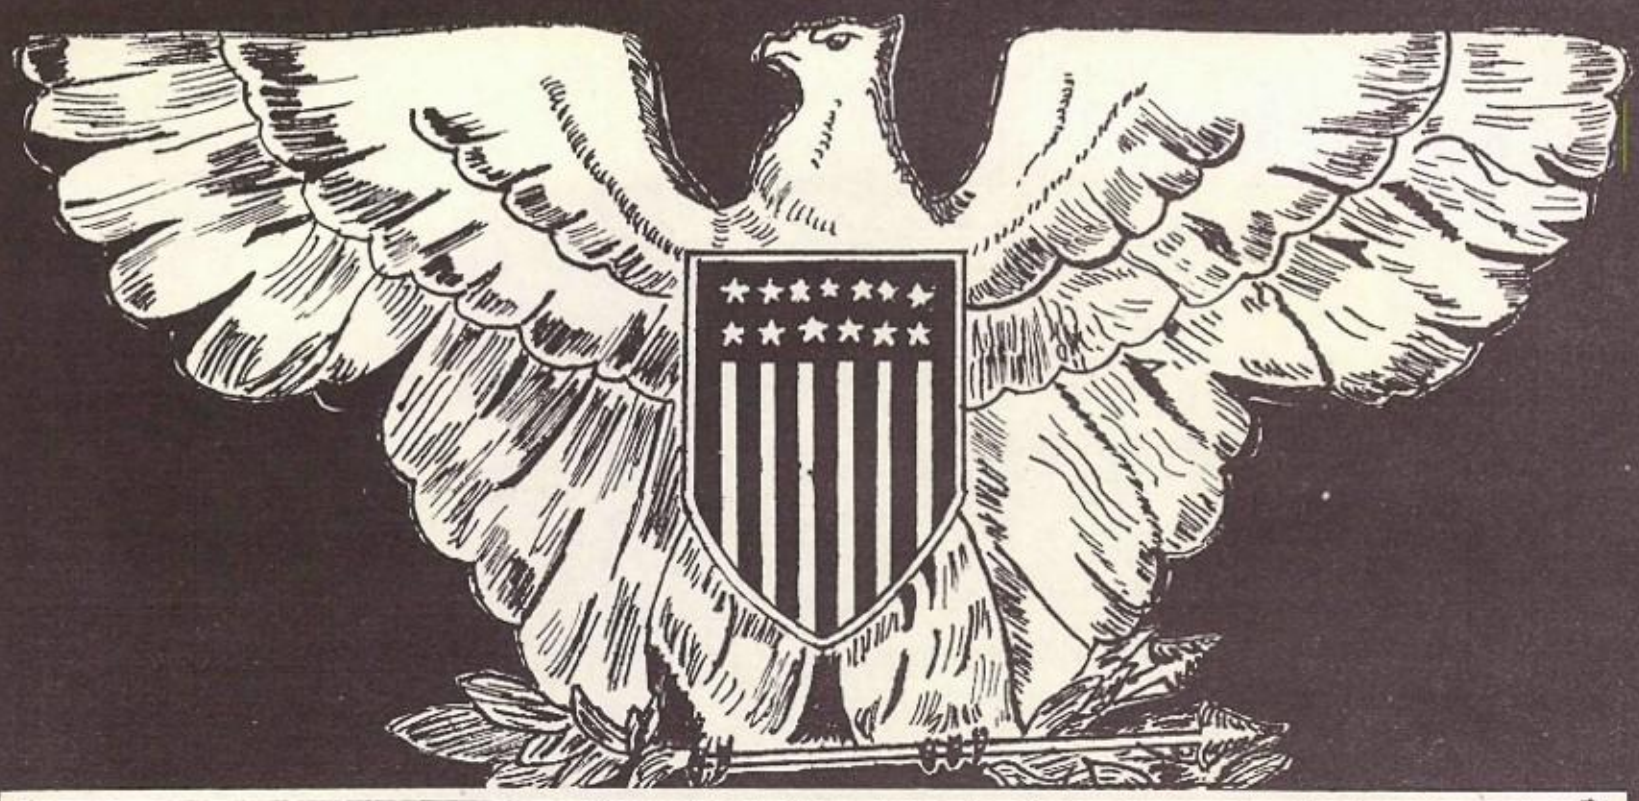
Published by
Ennis High School
Ennis, Texas





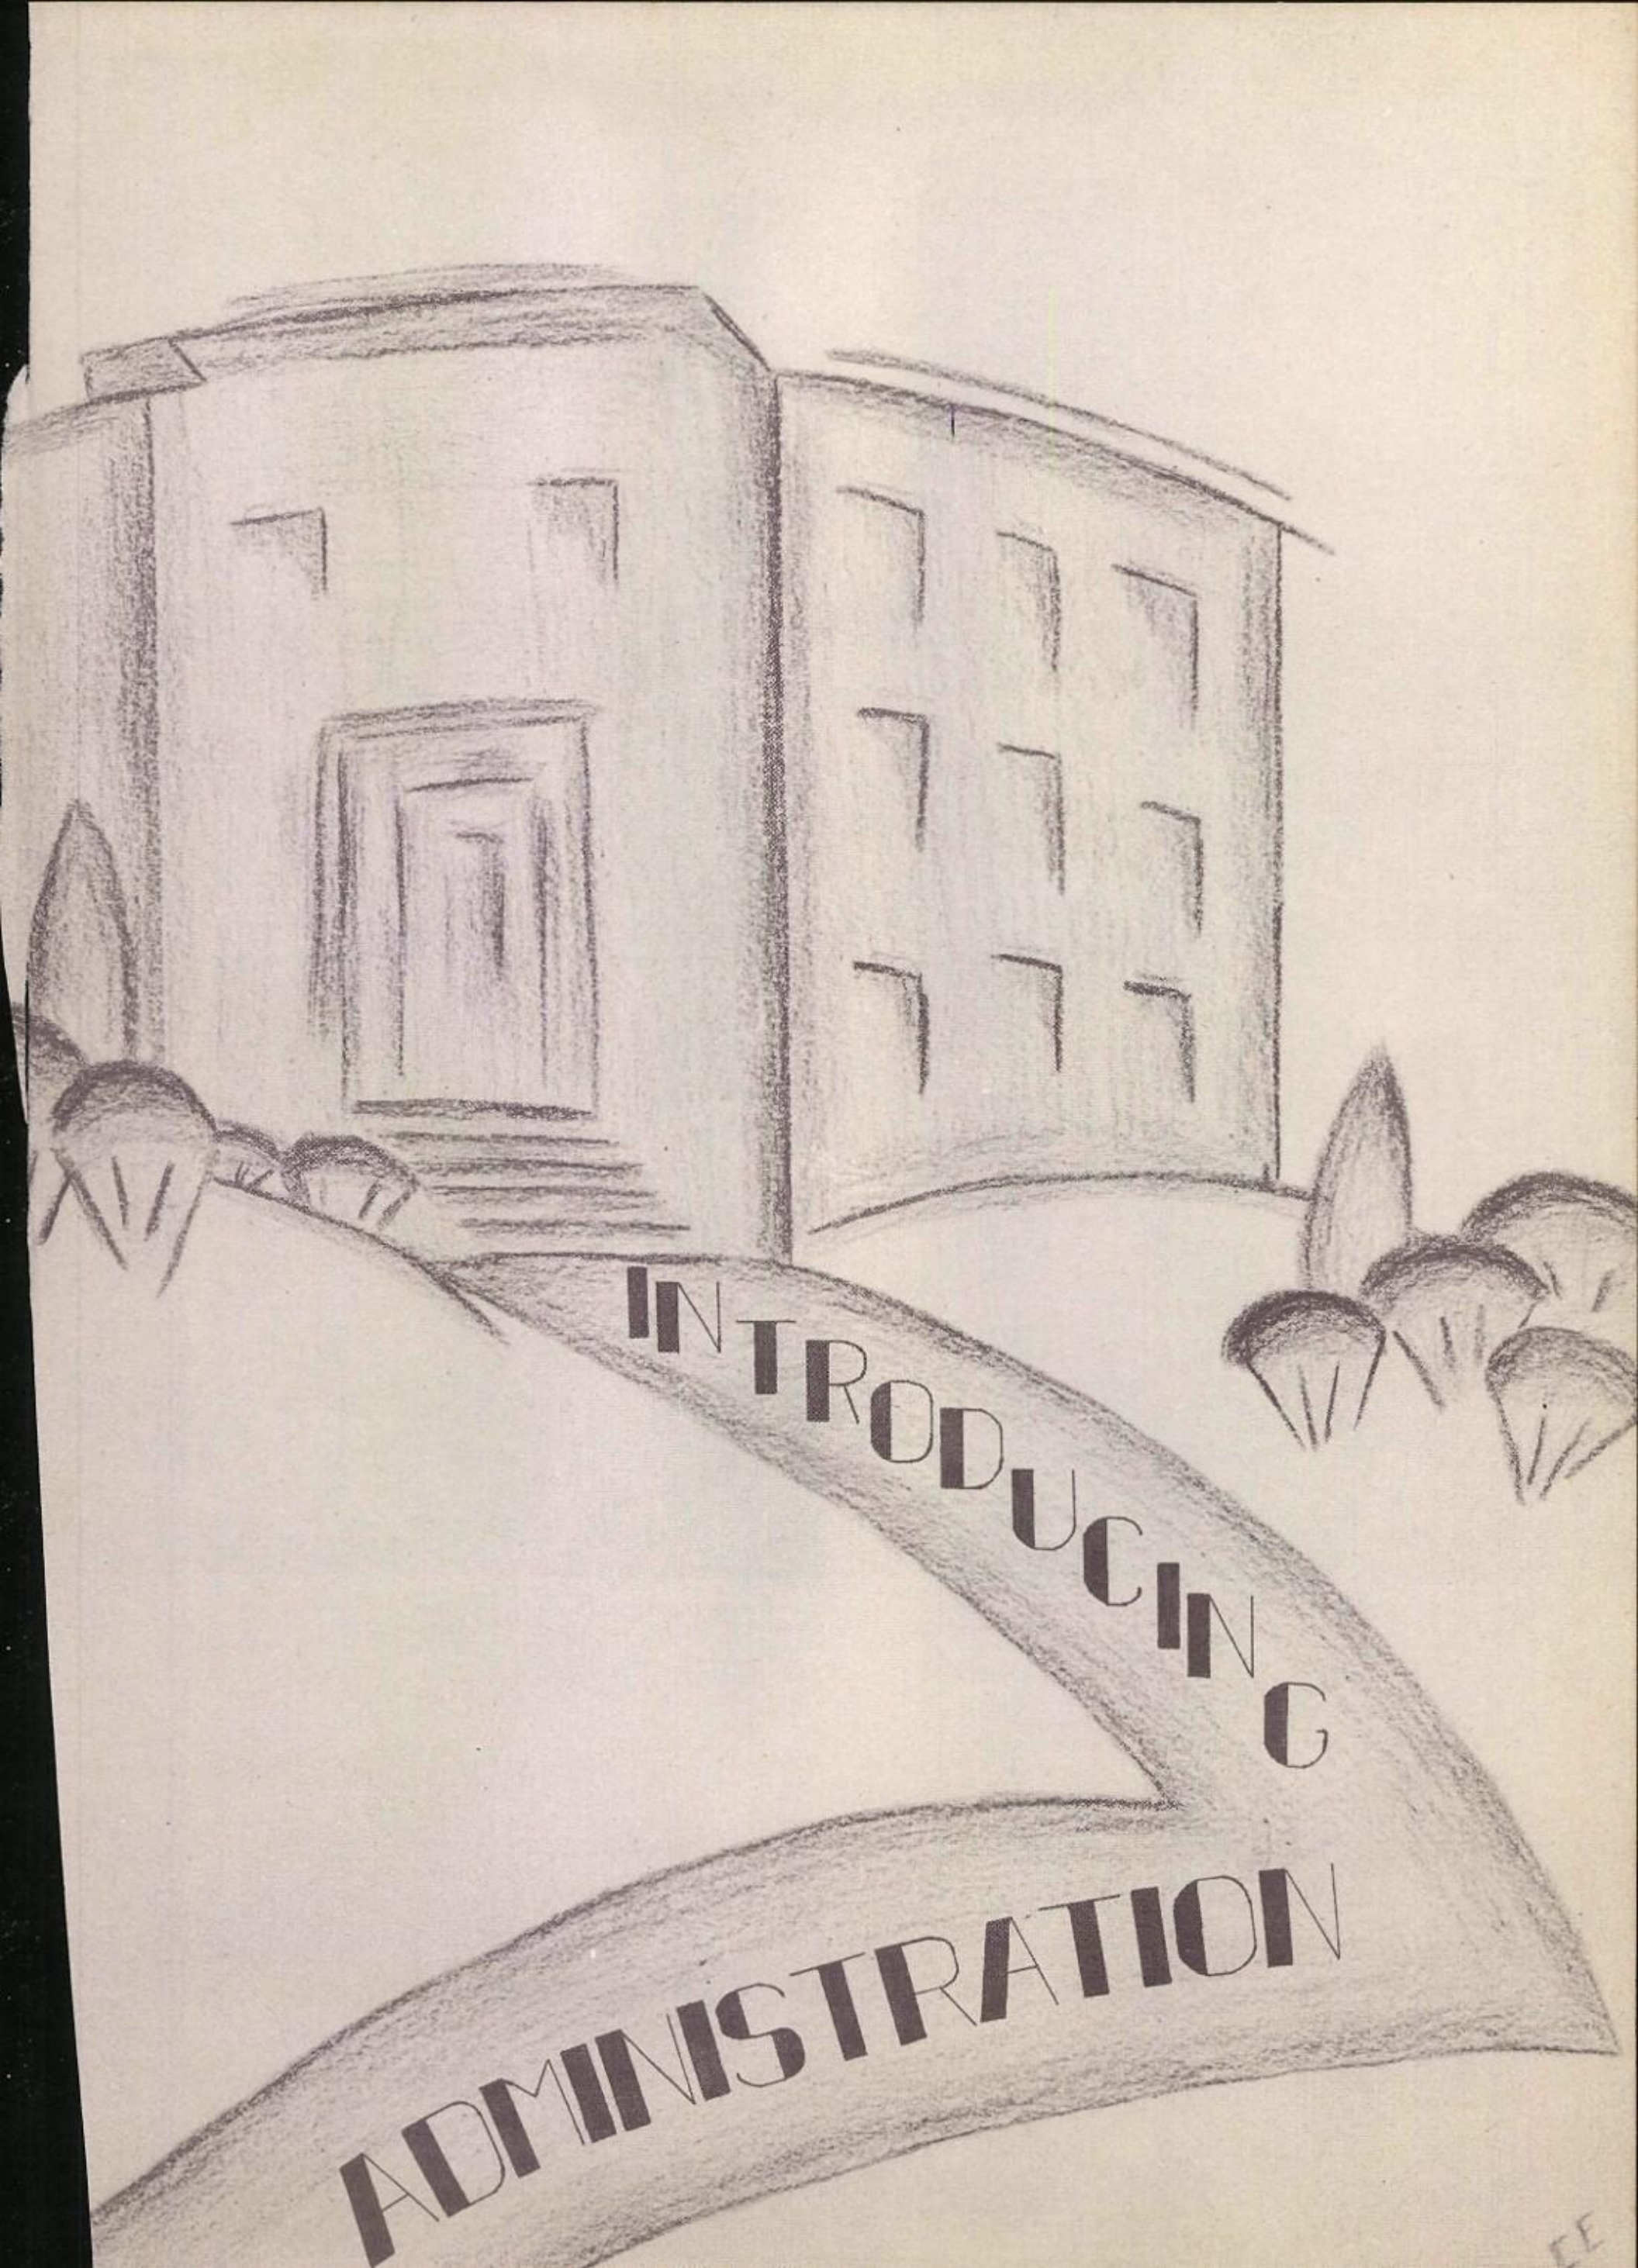
We, the staff of the 1945 Ciceronе, have put forth our very best efforts in order to make this, a war year annual, one in which you will take as much joy in having twenty years hence as you do now.

This is not a book of dreams but sturdy stuff — your work, your play, activities, failures, triumphs. Take it, keep it, and cherish it; for it is a record of years which will never pass again — your youth.



DEDICATION

To the ex-students of Ennis High School, who are in the service of our country, fighting for the principles embodied in our schools, we prayerfully dedicate the Cicerone of 1945.



INTRODUCING

ORGANIZATIONS

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

The F.F.A. of Ennis is affiliated with the national organization which has 200,000 active members. They are striving to build better rural leadership, for they realize that today's boys will determine the progress of our farmers tomorrow. This year's outstanding events for the 65 members of the Ennis Chapter include the F.F.A. Father-Son Banquet, the trip to the Fort Worth Fat Stock Show, and the Baby Beef Show held in April. From all parts of America at the present time more than 150,000 F.F.A. boys have gone to serve in the Armed Forces of our country. The Future Farmers at home are war workers in the production and conservation of food and feed; they furnish labor, repair machinery, and conserve our soil.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF TEXAS

The Ennis Chapter of the Future Homemakers of Texas includes sixty-five active members and seventy associate members. This Chapter was organized in 1938 with the purpose of teaching through instructive programs how to make a better home and to live a fuller life. The official colors of the F.H.T. are blue and silver; the chosen flower is the blue cornflower; and the guiding motto of the club is "Our dreams of today are the realizations of tomorrow." As can be noted in the pictures, interesting club activities of the local chapter include handwork and the initiation of new members.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The National Honor Society has four goals - scholarship, service, leadership, and character - which serve as a guide for the selection of members and for club activities. The Ennis Chapter has endeavored to create an interest in maintaining a higher standard of work by presenting scholarship awards each term to the homerooms with the highest scholastic average in each class. The members, selected by the faculty, include the following:

Old Members

Ina Pearl Gaudwyn
Margaret Harkins
Peggy Hodge
Dorothy Ludwig

CICERONE EDITORIAL STAFF

Margaret Harkins, Editor-in-chief, and Robert Shipley, Assistant Editor, have directed the editorial work of the 1945 Cicerone. The art editors - Carolyn Earles, Louis Kudrna, Floyd Fluker, and Peggy Beckman - with the capable assistance of Miss Mary C. Keller, have been responsible for the hand-lettering and modernistic designs. To Pauline Kovar goes the credit for the script writing found throughout the Cicerone. Our photographers - Bryant Borer, James Harrell, and Joe Bob Davis - have worked faithfully to portray our school life in pictures. Peggy Hodge, Editor of Composition has rendered an invaluable service to the staff. Billy Mizell, Business Manager of the Cicerone, directed the activities of the Business Staff. The Circulation Staff did a splendid job selling every Cicerone before their manager, Mack McCaw, left for the Navy. Martha Purcell, Catherine Emerson, Marjorie Sublett, Tom Bill Kelly, and others worked faithfully on the Advertising Staff, which was directed by Berry Hedrick. Perhaps the one person most keenly interested in the success of our Cicerone is our faculty sponsor, Miss Beatrice Davis.

BUSINESS STAFF

The P.A.S.F., an organization sponsored by the State Department of Education, encourages a respect for and a tolerance toward all nationalities in the Americas.

PAN-AMERICAN STUDENT FORUM

JUNIOR HISTORIAN CLUB

The Junior Historians, while studying contemporary history, kept a file containing information on all ex-students of Ennis High School now serving in the Armed Forces of our country. Officers of the club include: Bryant Baren, President; James Harrell, Vice-President; Grace Test, Secretary; Tammy Warren, Reporter; Betty Lou Verlaine, Recorder; and Miss Barkley, Sponsor.

DRAMATIC CLUB

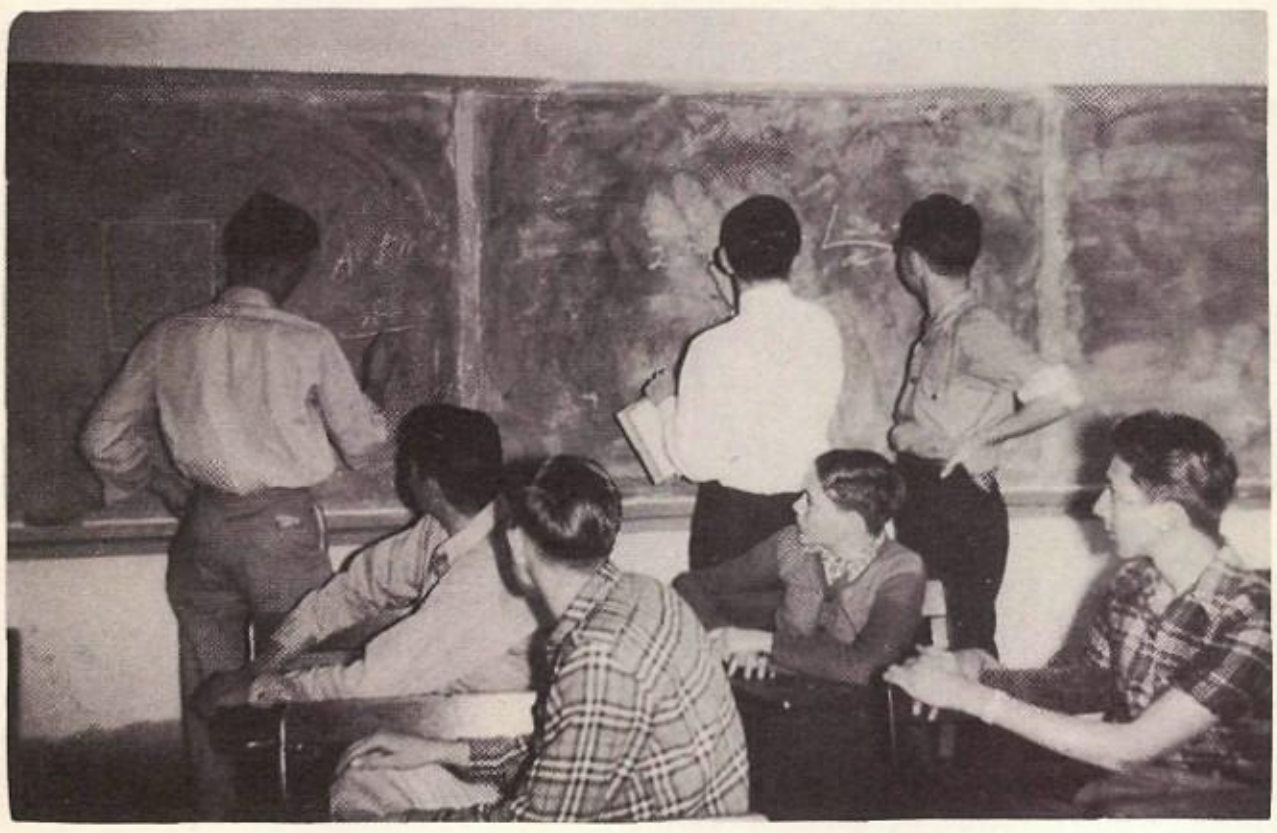
The Dramatic Club is open to Juniors and Seniors who have had Speech or Drama. Their presentation of one-act plays in assembly will long be remembered. Officers of the club include: Billy Thornhill, President; Ann Venable, Vice-President; Jean Thompson, Secretary; Jahnie Moseley, Reporter; Mrs. Mitchell and Miss Witherspoon, Sponsors.

GLEE CLUB

The Girls' Glee Club, composed of 26 members, presented one public performance — an operetta, "The Nifty Shop." The officers directing the activities of the club include: Martha Purcell, President; Betty Jo Sills, Vice-President; Marilyn Luker, Secretary-Treasurer; Adell Sanka, Reporter; Dorothy Ragala, accompanist; and Mrs. Melba Davenport, Director.

Under the direction of Mr. Percy Davenport, air-minded boys build and study the construction of model airplanes. The club president, Ben Ed Tillison, has as his co-officers: Vice-president, Robert Kasper; Secretary-treasurer, Jerry Kopecek; and Reporter, Samuel Armstrong.

MODEL AIRPLANE CLUB



MATH CLUB

The members of the Math Club, sponsored by Mrs. Claudine Garrison, are intensely interested in all phases of mathematics. Their club periods are spent in solving problems which are truly "brain-teasers." Officers of the club include: Alex Bailey, President; Bobbie Cox, Vice-President; James Hall, Secretary-Treasurer; and Emil Chmelar, Reporter.

The Boys' Athletic Club, composed of 60 potential athletes, meets in the gymnasium with Coach Lawrance who directs the varied activities of the group. The officers of the club include: Billy Hinsell, President; Jerry Porter, Vice-President; Ray Houx, Secretary-Treasurer; and Sue Lee Gorman, Reporter.

BOYS' ATHLETIC CLUB

GIRLS' ATHLETIC CLUB

The Girls' Athletic Club is subdivided into six teams that participate in intrascholastic tournaments in volleyball, softball, and tennis. Officers elected by the club are: Betty Jo Murphey, President; Beverly Tolar, Vice-President; Priscilla Youngblood, Secretary-Treasurer; and Misses Katherine Maxson and Mary Catherine Keller, Sponsors.

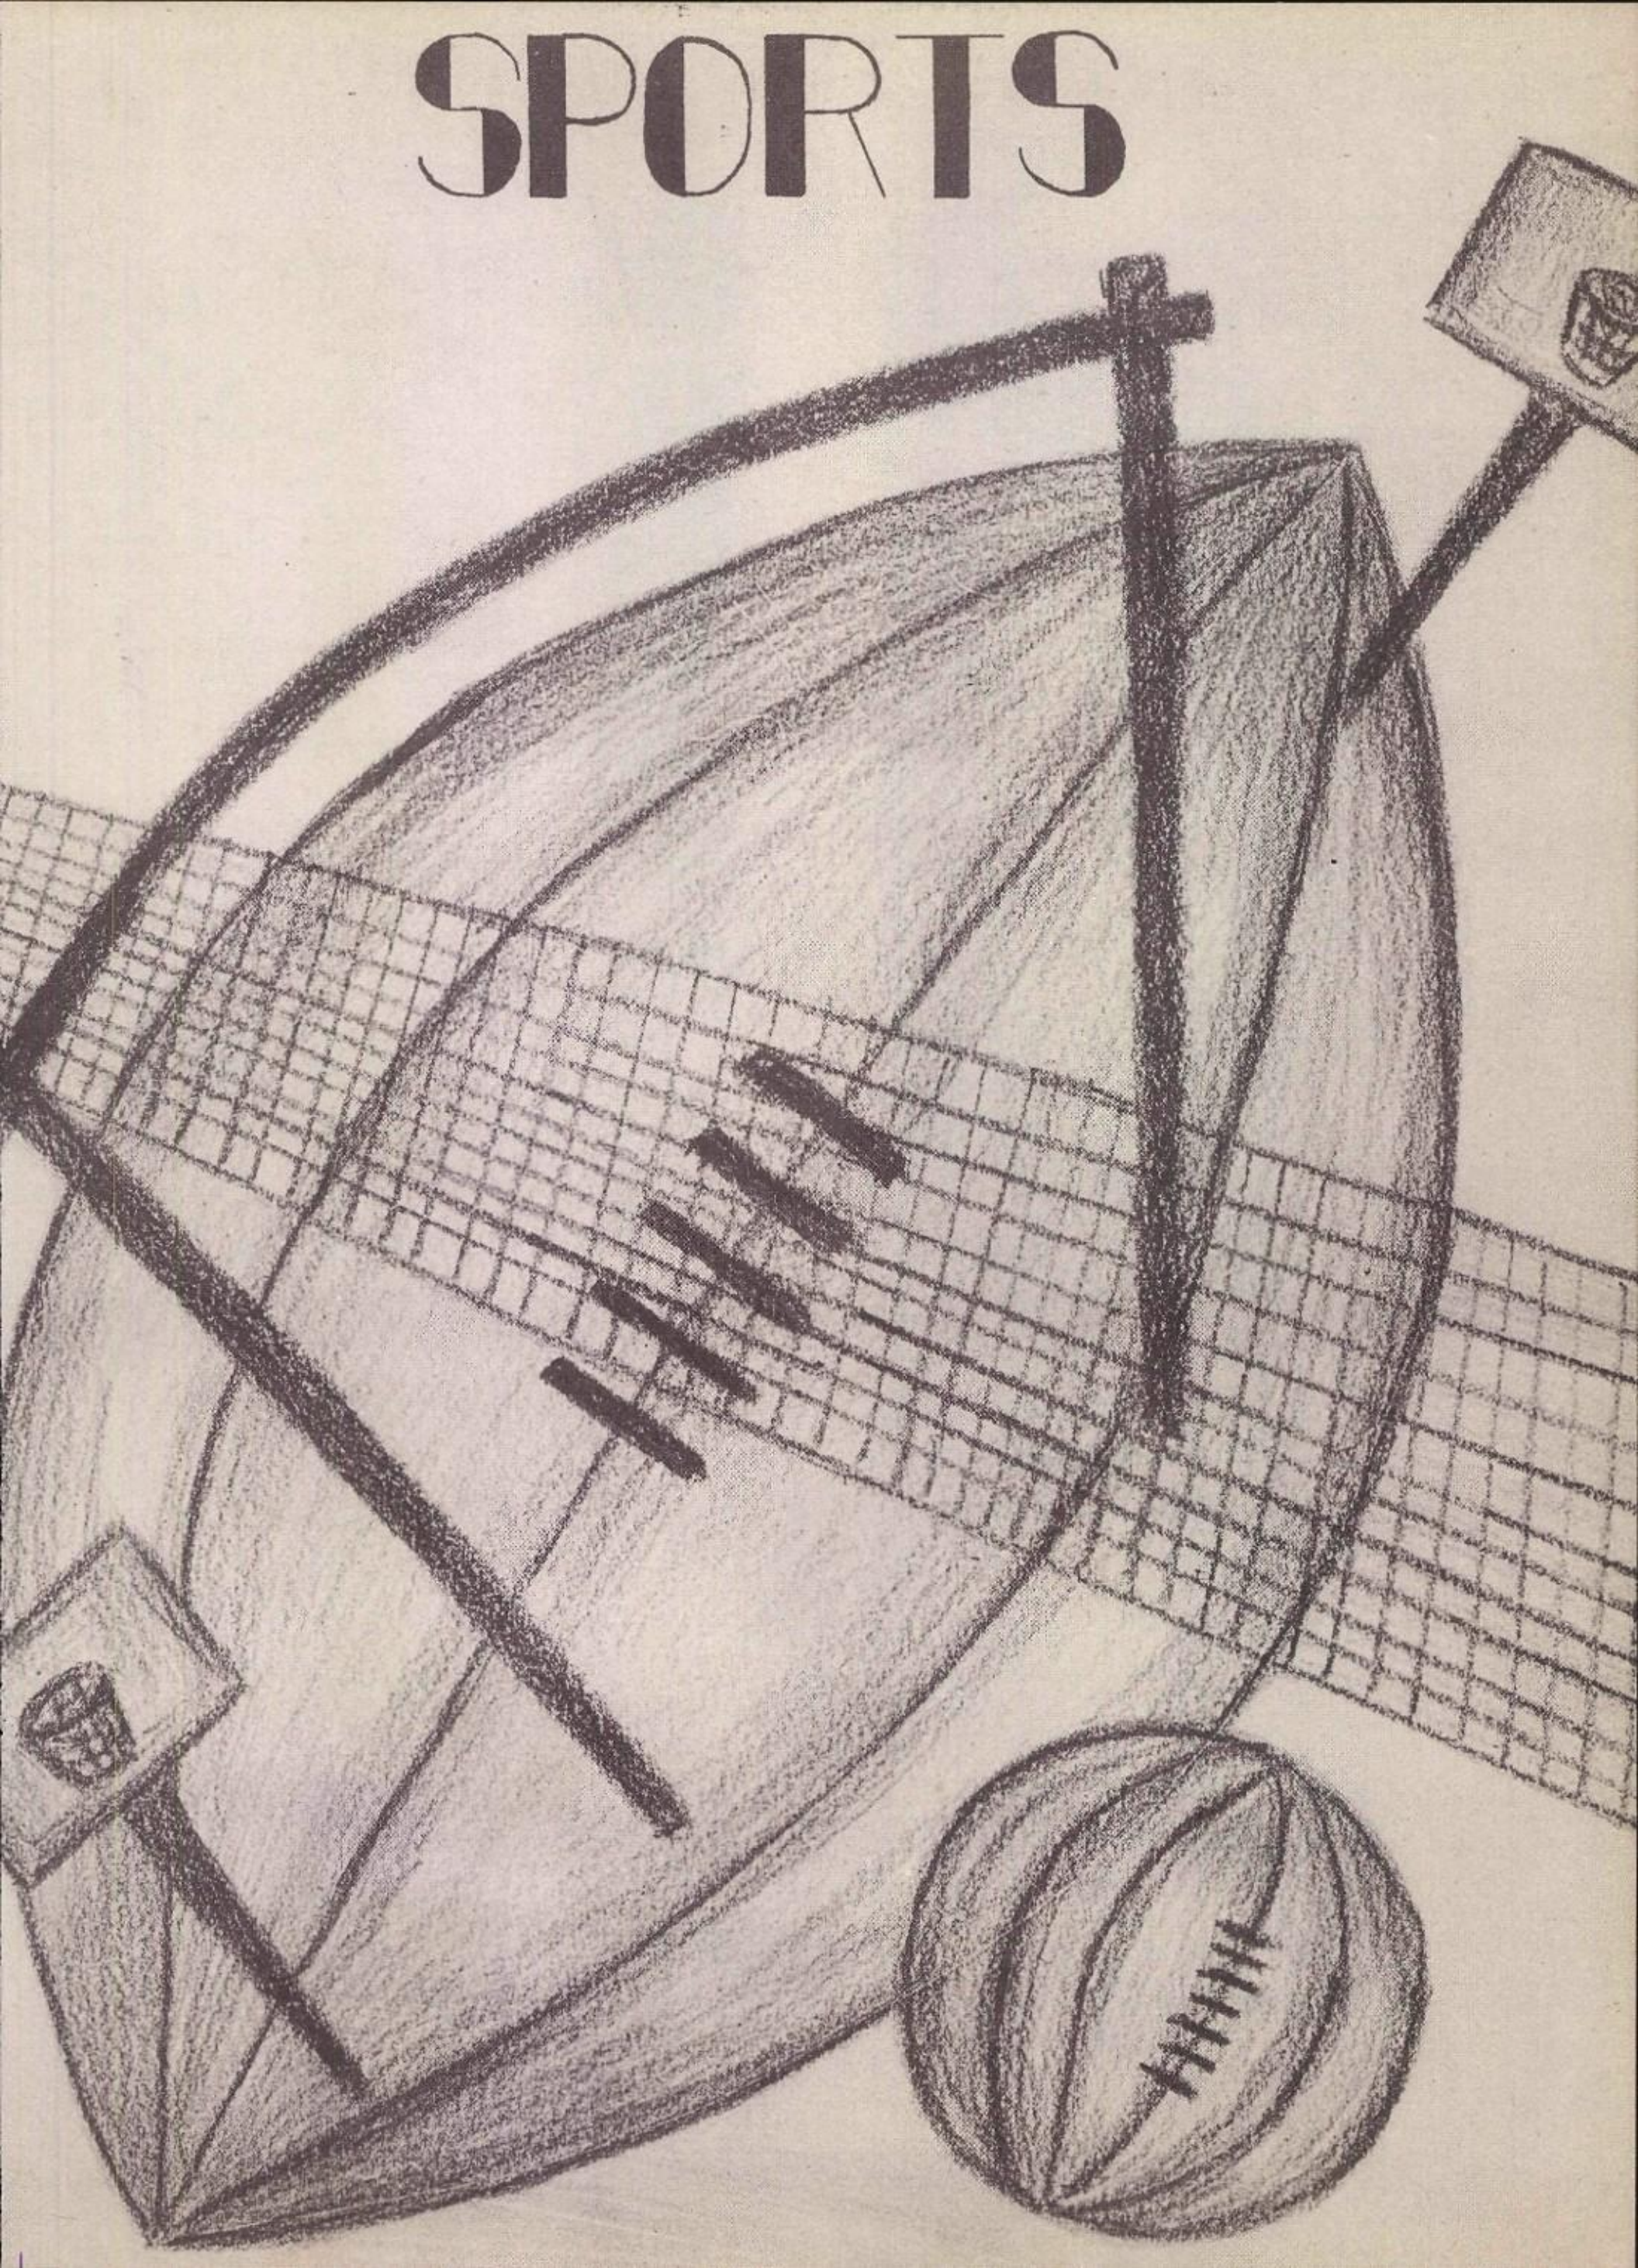
SPORTS



FOOTBALL GAMES

Ennis vs. Greenville – The Lions dropped their opener to Greenville 29-7. After a thrilling first half, the score was 2-0 in favor of Greenville. The Lion attack was led by Jerry Parter and Frank Parks. Thornhill, Glaspy, and Sublett also stood out for the Lions.

Ennis vs. Waxahachie – The Lions lost their first district game to Waxahachie, however the Lions outplayed the Indians the entire second half. After the first half, with the score 32-0, the Indians never threatened the Lion's goal again.

Ennis vs. Temple – Temple stopped the Lions 27-0. Outplayed by a powerful Temple line, the Lions lost their third straight game. Mizell, McCaw, and Hedrick were outstanding on the defense, and Crow on the offense.

Ennis vs. Bryan – The Lions lost a close one to the Bryan Broncs 14-6. Parks made a 65-yard run, the longest of the game, for the Lions' only score.

Ennis vs. Arlington – The Lions came to life by beating Arlington 27-0. The features of the game were Mizell's running and passing and Venable's receiving. Outstanding in the line were Thornhill, Lowell, Ferris, and Hedrick.

Ennis vs. Cleburne – The Lions won their first district game by swamping Cleburne 26-0. Shady Crow proved to be one of the best Ennis backs. L.C. Parks played an outstanding game.

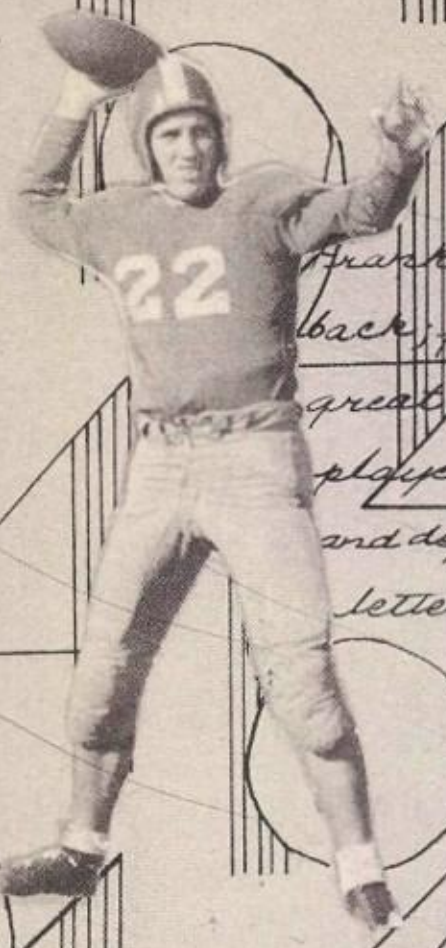
Ennis vs. Hillsboro – The Lions edged Hillsboro 25-24. McCaw starred by running 105 yards in 20 seconds to score one touchdown and set up another. Mizell did some neat side-stepping behind the powerful blocking of Carman and Lowell. Venable saved a possible tie by blocking the kick for an extra point.

Ennis vs. Corsicana – The Lions took Corsicana 24-0. The scores were made by Crow, Mizell, and Parks. Essary, Hayes, and Ludlow played an outstanding game.

Ennis vs. Waco – The Ennis Lions closed their 1944 season by losing to the Waco Tigers 46-0. The Lions were outclassed by the Tigers, but by showing plenty of spirit and putting up a good fight earned the right to the title "The Ennis Fightin' Lions."

Thus ended the Lions' 1944 gridiron season – not in a blaze of glory for the Ennis fans, but in a fine sportsmanlike manner for Ennis Hi.

OUR



Frank Parker, 133 pound back; fast, shifty, and a great passer; dependable player on both offense and defense, two year letterman.

Eugene Venable, 160 pound end and tackle; a great defensive star; a constant pass receiver and a determined fighter, three year letterman.

Don Scott, 124 pound guard and quarter back; a real scrapper although handicapped by lack of weight; letterman.

Billy Mizell, 163 pound full back; co-captain of the 1944 squad; played top notch ball both on offense and defense; turned in one of the best seasons ever recorded for a line back; outstanding where his passing and line-backing; three year letterman.

Jerry Porter, 134 pound halfback; light, fast; a good passer and fast runner; hard to bring down; two year letterman.

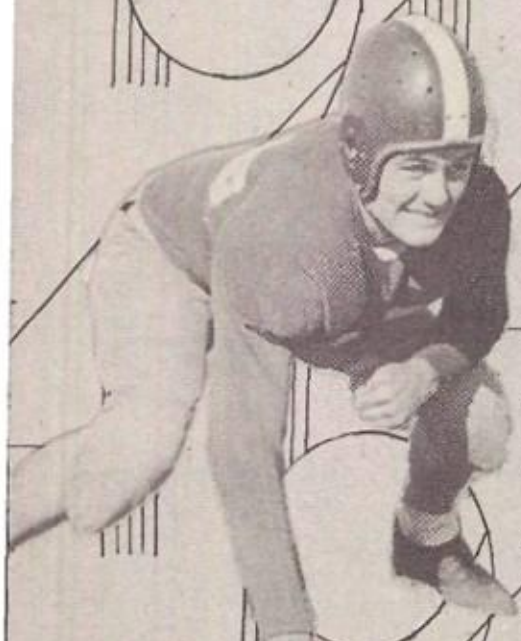
W. J. Ferris, 145 pound guard; fine blocker and defensive man; a boy who never gave up; letterman.

"Shady" Crow, 144 pound halfback; a hard driving side stepping back; a great passer; played his best when the going was tough; two year letterman.

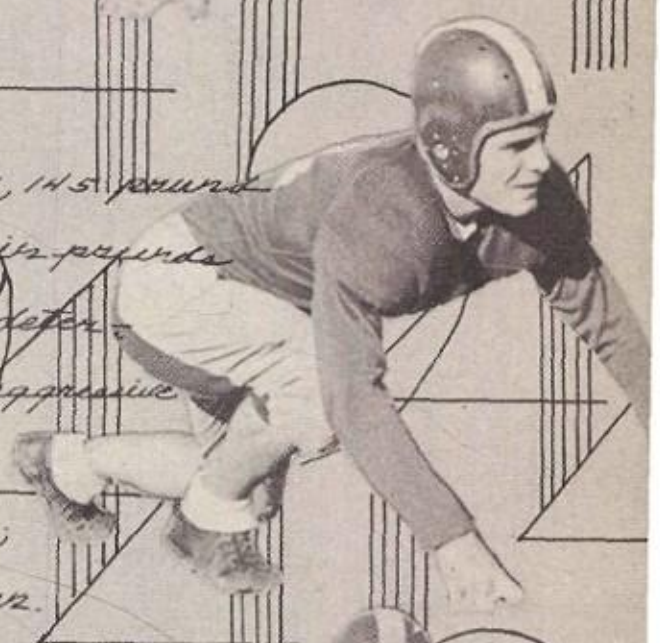
LETTERMEN

Joe Lee Gorman, 141 pound quarterback; a powerful blocker who paved the way for the ball carriers; good defensive man; letterman.

George Haye, 217 pound tackle; a good offensive and defensive man; constantly stopped and spoiled plays at the line of scrimmage; two year letterman.

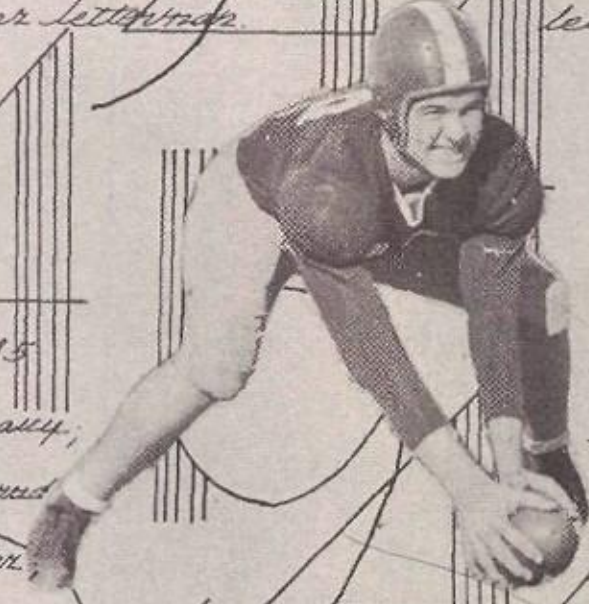


Billy Thornhill, 152 pound guard, a boy who loved the game and liked it rough; an explosive blocker and vicious tackler; two year letterman.



Ralph Ecoary, 145 pound tackle; light in pounds but heavy in determination; an aggressive tackler and a fine blocker; letterman.

Steve Ludlow, 185 pound end; heavy; fast, and a good pass receiver; good defensive man; letterman.



Steve Lowell, 156 pound tackle; a dashing defensive man; a capable blocker; a dependable player; two year letterman.

Mack McGaw, 195 pound center and end; co-captain of the 1941 team; a great line backer and a vicious tackler; an excellent pass receiver when playing end; always good for a "wise-crack" when the going was tough; two year letterman.

Joe W Glaspy, 139 pound center; good blocker and line backer; excellent center; Junior Tritten, letterman.

Benny Hedrick, 165 pound end, center shifted to end, great pass receiver and defensive star; always scrapping; two year letterman.

The Seniors of 1945 will be remembered as one of the most vivacious, energetic, and dependable classes that ever graduated from Ennis High School.

Just as their chosen colors of Blue and Gold indicate, the personnel of the class have been "true-blue" and "as good as gold" in upholding the traditions, honor, and prestige of our Alma Mater.

Senior leadership is evidenced in practically every activity of our high school. Serving as club presidents are Seniors Mack McCaw, Margaret Harkins, Joe Neulin, Billy Thornhill, Martha Parcell, and Ben Ed Tillison.

Senior class officers include Billy Mizell, President; Benny Hedrick, Vice-President; Margaret Harkins, Secretary; Ina Gardwin, Treasurer; and Peggy Hodge, Reporter. The class is sponsored by Misses Ina Witherspoon, Mary Catherine Keller, Drewsie David, and Mr. A.B. Rasch.

Ne'er-to-be-forgotten memories are the Christmas Party, Senior Emblem, Rings, Junior-Senior Party, Senior Play, Senior Day, Invitations, Senior Week, Junior-Senior Banquet and finally graduation with the thought in mind, "We Finish to Begin."

The Junior Class of 1945 is small in quantity, but outstanding in quality. Every activity in Ennis High School is supported by a large number of talented, capable Juniors.

The band is led by President, James Harrell; Drum Major, Carolyn Earles, and Majorette, Jahrie Mosley. Cheer leaders, Tom Bill Kelly and Marjorie Sublett, helped to bring victories to the 1944 Ennis Lions, among whom we find Juniors — Shipley, Essary, Ellis, Sublett, Hart, Craw, Hanes, and Goodwin. It is also noteworthy that twelve Juniors hold places of responsibility on the Cicerone Staff.

One of the outstanding activities of the Junior Class this year was the production of the play, Crazy House, which was presented in the San Jacinto Auditorium on March 9.

Officers of the class include: Robert Shipley, President; "Sonny" Polar, Vice-President; Bobbie Vee Noel, Secretary-Treasurer; and William Goodwin, Reporter. The class is sponsored by Miss Ruth Paff, Mrs. Fred Clark, and Miss Mary Kucera.

The Saphamare Class of 1945, composed of one hundred and twelve members, is one of the largest and most active groups in the Ennis High School. In athletics, music, and scholastic achievements, these students invariably have made an enviable record. Not soon will we forget the football lettermen from the "Saph" Class - Joe Wallace Glaspy, "Shady" Crow, and W.J. Ferris - nor the other squad members - Wendell Evans, Everett Roberts, Richard Collier, and Glynn Sandridge. Playing on the "A" and "B" basketball teams were several of these same athletes.

Prancing before our "snappy" high school band is Majorette Beverly Talar, while in the ranks of the band march Saphamares - Frances Cullum, Billie Jo Peel, B.O. Brown, Alfred Lasprovsky, Billy Watkins, and Richard Roberson.

This class, which promises great things for E.H.S., is led by the following officers and sponsors:

President - Thomas "Tinker" Talar
Vice-President - B.O. Brown
Secretary-Treasurer - Roscoe Morgan
Reporter - Beverly Talar
Sponsors - Mrs. Omajeanne Mitchell

The Freshman Class of 1945 makes its entrance into the Ennis High School as one of the largest on record. The coming of these students has added new pep and personality to our student body, and we are happy to note that they have entered whole-heartedly into the various activities of the school.

It is noteworthy that eighteen boys participated in football and basketball. In the next season or two our roster will include some of the following familiar names: Miller, Moore, Olstead, Muirhead, Parks, Mc Cormick, Hernandez, Fountain, Jones, Hawkins, Viers, Shaw, Bozeman, Roberts, Smith, and Taylor. From this class we find Gerald Darnell, Alex Parma, and Edwin Gurecky marching in the ranks of the Ennis High School Band.

The highlight of Freshman activities was a Christmas party which was sponsored by the mothers of the class and was enjoyed by the class as a whole in the school cafeteria.

Mrs. Claudine Garrison, Mrs. Melba Davenport, Mrs. Alice Kate Wilson, and Mr. Robert Lawrance sponsor this group of students who elected the following class officers: L.C. Parks President; Robert Goodwin, Vice-President; Lynn McCormick, Secretary; and Johnny Miller, Reporter.

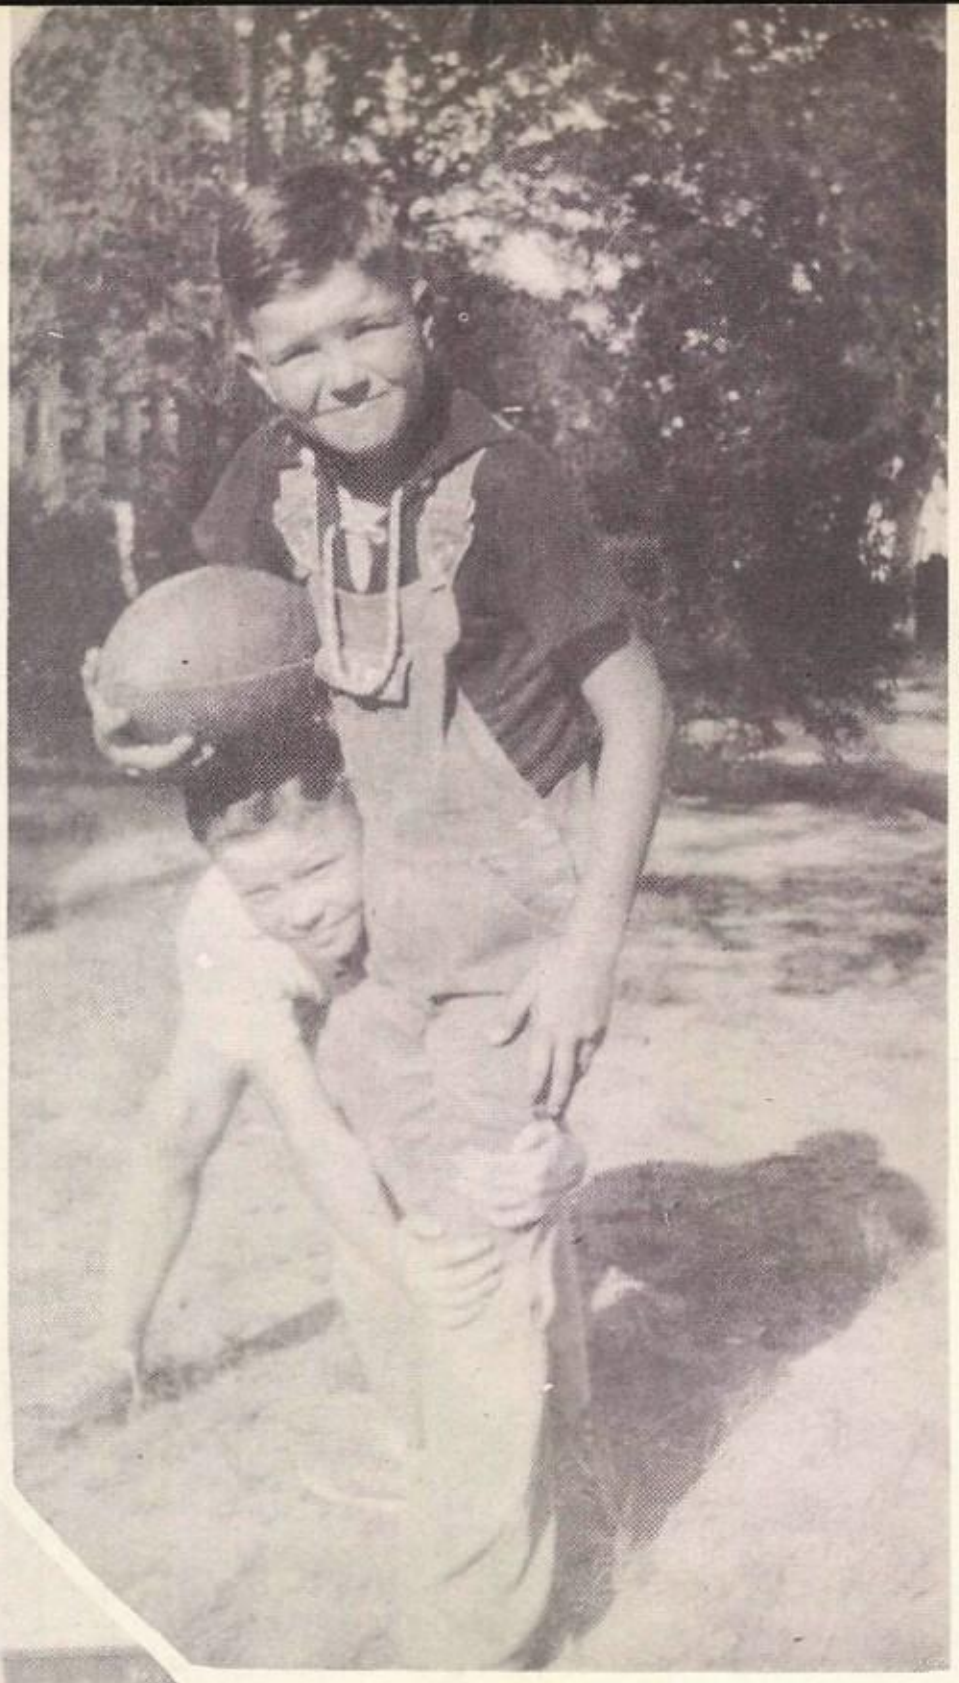
YESTERDAY

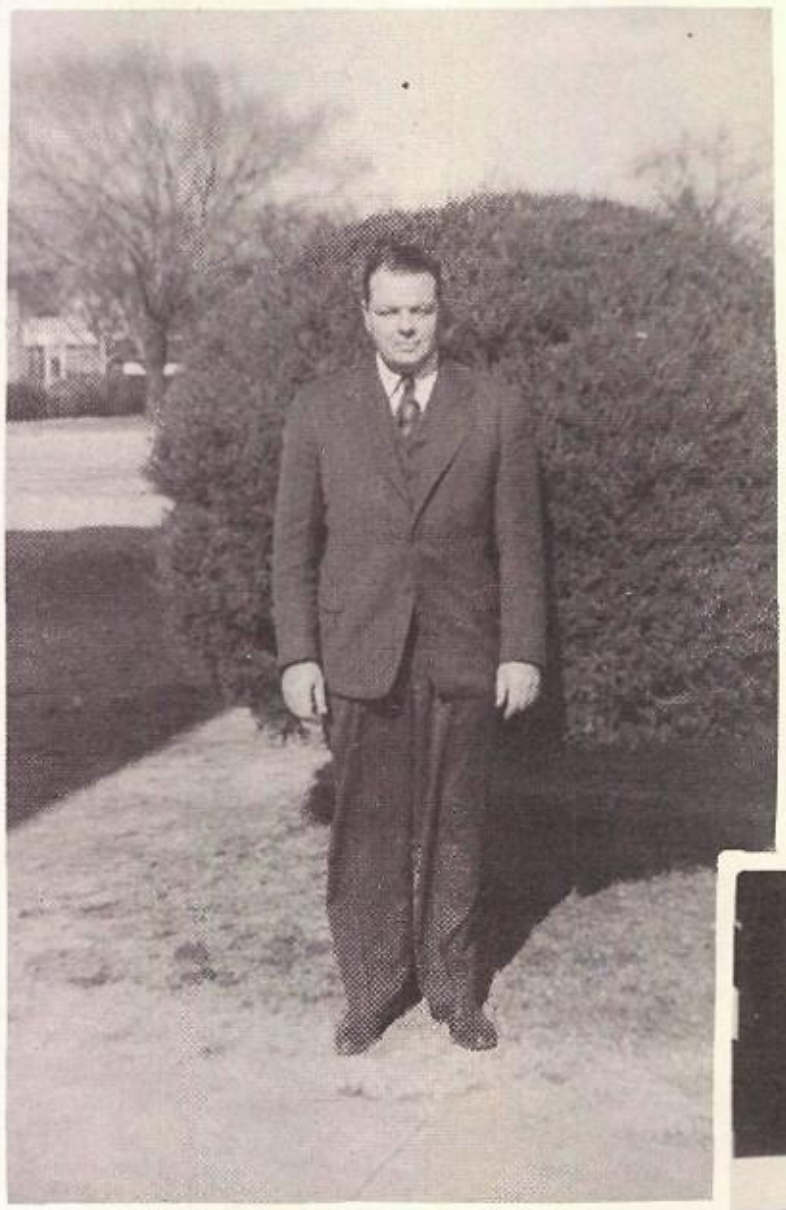
Well, if it isn't Mack McLaw being tackled by Billy Mimell in a friendly game of football! These boys showed their love for football at an early age, as they both dreamed of becoming---



TODAY

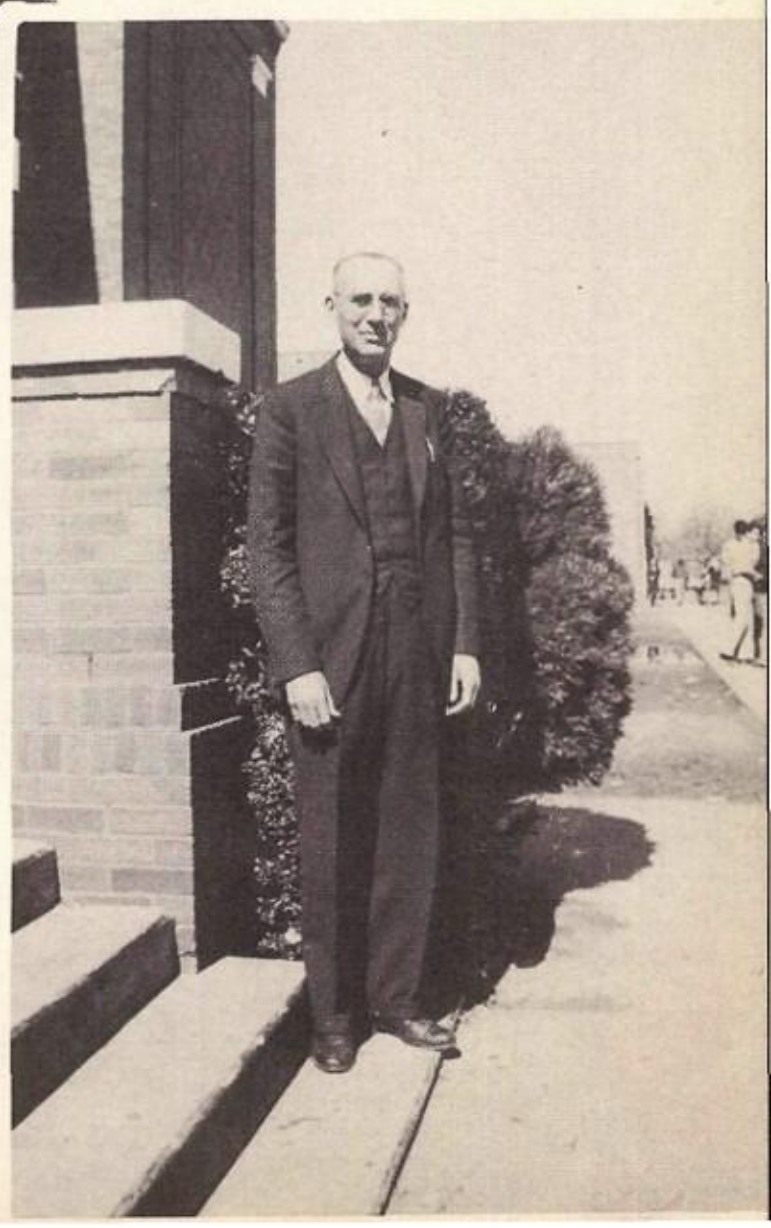
---- Yes, real football stars! A true facsimile of the years gone by, and a dream which has come true. By popular vote of the 1944 Football Squad, Mimell and McLaw were elected co-captains of the Ennis High School Fighting Lions.

Since January, 1943, Mr. J. D. King, now serving with the American Red Cross somewhere overseas, has been superintendent of the Ennis Public Schools. Reluctantly we saw him leave our school in January, but we are happy to know that our loss is our servicemen's gain.



Mr. J. F. Gardner, our principal since 1943, has proved his ability as an administrator. Because of his contribution to the progress and growth of the Ennis High School, we feel fortunate to acclaim him as our Superintendent of Schools.

EXCELSIOR



Mr. A. B. Roach, an ideal teacher, came to our high school in 1941 as an instructor of mathematics and aeronautics. The entire student body rates him highly for his understanding and sympathetic attitude toward his pupils; thus we are happy in his promotion to High School Principal.

. . . . NOW IT'S YOURS

In this our Cicerone of forty-four, forty-five
We've tried to present everything from facts to "jive."
It has been the staff's one great endeavor
To make this yearbook the best one ever.
We've pictured more than once each boy and girl;
Our photographers tried to capture life in the whirl
So that each trial and triumph, like a bright ember
Would blaze a Path of Memories that we'd all remember.
May each picture, each page, like a familiar song
Endear you to your Cicerone — so that you may love it long.
